*Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all you lands!
Serve the Lord with gladness; come into God's presence with a song.
Know that the Lord is God, our maker to whom we belong;
we are God's people and the sheep of God's pasture.
Enter the gates of the Lord with thanksgiving and the courts with praise;
give thanks and bless God's holy name.
Good indeed is the Lord, whose steadfast love is everlasting, whose faithfulness endures from age to age. Psalm 100

As we enter the month of November, a month of thanksgiving and gratitude, we have much for which to be thankful. Reformation Sunday was not only an important date in the church year but also the 38th anniversary of this congregation. Fellowship has been a beacon of hope for the Sawmill community for 38 years! Although we've seen some changes in our community and within our congregation, we are still together in God's church, spreading the good news of the gospel to our community.

Reformation Sunday was also the 5th anniversary for me as your pastor. I've enjoyed my five years with you and look forward to our next five years together. It's not always been easy, that's for sure, but we have journeyed together and I have been blessed in so many ways being your pastor. I am truly grateful for being called to Fellowship.

For those who attended our Sunday evening session with the Rev. Dr. Cheryl Peterson, I hope you found the session helpful to answer the questions you have about our denomination. We learned that the gospel of Jesus Christ is the highest authority in our church, and we don't read Scripture in a vacuum but read the Bible through the lens of the gospel. Dr. Peterson addressed questions on heaven, hell, universal salvation (not a Lutheran doctrine but a hope of many), and the ELCA social statements. I loved her analogy of "we don't 'got to'" do something but "we 'get to'" with joy in our hearts. We are saved by grace through faith. God's grace is not a status to be achieved, but simply a gift...a gift to be received. It is a promise to be trusted.

Thank you also to all those who participated in the three focus groups. We have some different opinions on some issues but I believe that it was obvious that we can disagree with each other but still love each other. We have our unity in Christ.

See you in church!

Pastor Robin

Sunday Evening Worship and Praise Services continue on Sundays at 5:00 p.m. Please help us spread the word! This is a 45-50 minute, "come as you are" service with singing, a short message, and communion.

Veteran Recognition Sunday on November 11th On November 11, we will again recognize all the veterans in our church family. If we have your information from the bulletin insert in last year Veteran's Day Recognition Sunday, we will use the information we have. Otherwise, please provide the office with your information.

Did You Know That Fellowship Has an Active Care Team? Our care team meets monthly and sends out cards to those in our congregation, and their relatives and friends with concerns. Our current care team is Fritzzi Bear, Carolyn Crispin, Lillian Kachic, Frank and Leena LeMay, Martha Sampson, Andrea Sumner, and Pastor Robin. Six people from Fellowship have almost completed the Congregational Care and Hospital Visitation course at Prince of Peace. This will expand the caring ministry of Fellowship to include people trained in congregational care and visitation and home communion to help with the growing pastoral care needs of our congregation.

Fellowship's Mutual Ministry Committee Our mutual ministry committee continues their work with Kathy Farel, Carol Jaeger, Chad Laucher, and Pastor Robin meeting quarterly. If you have any concerns or suggestions on ways that we can "better be a church together," please feel free to contact them or Pastor Robin. The two key functions of a mutual ministry committee are pastoral support ("How are you doing, pastor?") and feedback ("How are we doing together in ministry?").

Gluten Free Communion Wafers are available. If you have trouble with the regular communion wafers or with the bread served, please let Pastor Robin know. We do have gluten-free wafers available. Large print bulletins are also available for worship. Please ask the usher for assistance.

Do You Order From Amazon? If so, then try Amazon Smile to support Fellowship Lutheran Church! First, go to Amazon Smile and choose Fellowship Lutheran Church, Columbus, OH as your charity. Then, shop as usual and Fellowship will receive a percentage of your purchase. It's that easy!

Kroger Plus Fundraising Information: If you would like to register your Kroger card for the Community Rewards Program, please contact Pastor Robin or the church office. Thank you so much for participating in this fundraiser! We received over $1,000 last year!

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not rely on your own insight. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths." Proverbs 3:5-6

By the time you read this, we will have completed the Focus Groups and will have held the discussion with Dr. Cheryl Peterson from Trinity Seminary. These activities have been put together to help address the concerns that were discussed during the September Congregational Meeting. The objective of having Dr. Peterson speak with us was to address and clarify some of the concerns about the ELCA's theology that were brought up and have been referenced in some of the NALC's comments regarding the ELCA. The Focus Groups were workshops intended to get perspectives about the other concerns that were raised and to identify ways for the congregation to move forward. There will be some action items that come out of these groups that we will want to pursue in the coming months. Hopefully, once these tasks are complete, we will be able to increase our focus on inviting people to join us in experiencing God's Love and Grace here at Fellowship.

On November 11, we will be having our regular Congregational Meeting. The primary purpose will be to elect leadership for the next term starting in January. We will also review the results of the focus groups. As mentioned in a prior email, the slate of candidates that was put forward by the nominating committee was:

- Todd Engen – President
- Mike Rankin – Vice President
- Ruth Albert – Council Secretary
- Carol Jaeger – Director of Outreach
- Sonya Thelin – Director of Worship
- Bill Lude – Director of Education and Youth
- John Votino – Director of Stewardship & Support
- Chad Laucher - Director of Congregational Life

This slate mirrors the organizational structure that has been outlined in the updated constitution that is in progress. The Synod is currently reviewing our proposed constitution and, when they have completed their review, it will come to PPC and then go to the congregation for approval at a future congregational meeting.

Please make every effort to attend the congregational meeting so that we can get our new leadership team in place for the beginning of the year.

Finally, I would like to thank everyone who participated in the Focus Groups and the meeting with Dr. Peterson. We identified some good things to work on, and we got to know each other better in the small group settings.

You can read a bio of Dr. Peterson at: https://www.associationdatabase.com/aws/SOS/asset_manager/get_file/126631?ver=4

Your servant in Christ,

Todd Engen

Two Kinds of Wisdom

"Who is wise and understanding among you? Let it show by his good life, by deeds done in the humility that comes from wisdom. But if you harbor bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast about it or deny the truth. Such "wisdom" does not come down from heaven, but is earthly, unspiritual, of the devil. For where you have envy and selfish ambition, there you find disorder and every evil practice.

But the wisdom that comes from heaven is first of all pure; then peace-loving, considerate, submissive, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere. Peace makers who sow in peace raise a harvest of righteousness." James 3:13-17

Sunday School News

In the adult class we will continue with the study of the New Testament from Matthew to Revelation. We will discover how historical research can illuminate the New Testament by a series of twenty lectures by the Professor of Religious Studies, Bart D. Ehrman at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Dr. Ehrman has crafted these lectures as a historical introduction to the 27 books of the New Testament to allow us to come to understand their content, meaning, and historical accuracy. Each lecture lasts about twenty-five minutes after which the class will discuss the lecture. Dr. Ehrman is outstanding! Hope to see you there!

Food Pantry

LSS is still operating the food pantry at the Champion-Frebis location on Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday from 12-2 p.m. The Westside pantry has moved to the Glenwood Community Center at 1888 Fairmont Ave. It will operate on Tuesdays and Fridays from 12:00 - 2:00 p.m. This is a temporary move for the Westgate center which will be remodeled this winter.

They still need volunteers at both locations from 11:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. I changed my volunteer day from Wednesday to Thursday because of the donation center. I'm willing to coordinate working at Frebis on Thursdays. You can call Josiah, the LSS volunteer coordinator at 740-364-8298 or me at 614-764-1084. You may also call the main number 877-LSS-MEAL from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Men's Breakfast

Our next men's breakfast will be on Saturday, November 10, 2018, at 8:30 a.m. All men are invited. Please come if you can. We'll eat at 8:30 a.m. and you'll be home by 9:45 a.m.

In God's service,

Fall Clean-up
Saturday, November 3rd at 9:00 a.m.

Please come and help!

Churches and places of worship have historically been known to be a community gathering place. What would you say about Fellowship? Are we part of the community or just in the community? This time of year more than other times the answer is very clear if you were in the Patch during delivery day or on any of the days following, selling and talking with those who come by.

Fellowship's Patch has been serving as a way to generate funds for nearly 20 years so the money raised has always helped in the community, but are we really part of the community? Do people come and gather here? Do they take anything away other than the pictures and pumpkins?

Earlier in 2018, Lilly our youngest, a student at Liberty Elementary, saw a kindergarten teacher with 27 kids in the car pool line and offered to help get them to their parents' cars. Her and a friend now do that on a daily basis, during their recess, each one taking 5 or 6. Lilly explained she has to let some of them grab fingers on the way to as she only has two hands. She saw a need and helped to solve a concern in her school, how does that relate to the patch? On Saturday 10-13, Lilly and I met about 10 families of all types including one of the kindergarteners that she helps each day, he came to the patch with his Mom. Jonah recognized Lilly and spoke briefly before he was bouncing between pumpkins trying to find the perfect one. His mom leaned over to Lilly gave her a hug and said "thanks for helping him get to the car each day, what you do matters".

Lilly and her friend were recognized by the school for helping out, but meeting the Parent of a kid she helps every day is something that happened out in the community, out in the Patch, it was the result of the community connecting with us. It could be said of too, what we do matters.

Two weeks prior, 2500 Pumpkins were unloaded. This was accomplished this year by some help from the community; some students from Dublin Scioto and the student athletes from the Worthington Kilbourne boys and girls cross country teams. The boys cross country team endured some coaching changes and had yet to gel as a team early in the season. In the trailer is Tanner, he was the last one to leave and doing one of the least glamorous of jobs on unloading day. Later in October the boys team would win their first league championship. Tanner and two other of the other top 5 finishers helped to unload pumpkins that day. Cross country is like unloading pumpkins, in cross country you can be a very fast runner and you can in fact take first place, but your team can not win with just one fast runner's score. So it is with unloading, you can have one very strong determined worker, but they themselves cannot unload 2500 pumpkins. One of the students who unloaded is accompanying Fellowship to First English on November 8th to serve some meals, as he wanted to see where some of the money goes. On October 27, the boys team competed in the regionals finishing 10th, on that same day Tanner qualified for states as an individual.

Is it possible working together and completing a big task helped the team with team building, it's certainly a possibility. Since they served we have heard from students that they had fun, will never look at pumpkins the same again, and possibly got as much out of serving as we did out of their service. That's how it is when your part of a community.

One last story, one of our members came by with her adult son who recalled working to unload as a kid, the most memorable part he said was when he "was old enough to work up in the truck" He remembered when he was able to help on a bigger level.

There can be no better lessons for us as we wind down Patch 2018, look to help on a bigger level, look to connect with those around you to do more as a group than you can do alone, let it be said of us that what we do matters, that we are not just in the community we are part of it. To that end Stewardship will be announcing a more aggressive Patch Proceeds distribution plan at the November congregational meeting, we want to get the funds out and into the greater community and have a plan to both fund our youth trips for the next 6 years and to distribute as much as possible in 2019 and the years to follow.

I will praise the name of God with song and shall magnify Him with thanksgiving. Psalm 69:30

We are truly blessed. Blessed to have the freedom to worship as we wish. Blessed to belong to a committed community of believers. And blessed that we can raise our voices in songs of thanksgiving throughout the entire year. We look forward to seeing you at services during the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons and beyond!

ADVENT AND CHRISTMAS

Preparing for Christmas

Advent will be here soon! We will decorate the church after worship on Sunday, December 2. Please plan to join us as we prepare for this special season!

Christmas Eve

We have changed our plans for Christmas Eve, and will hold one candle-light worship service at 7 p.m. December 24.

Our Christmas Eve luminaries will have a new look this year. Paper luminaries and tea lights will replace the former milk jugs, to maintain the welcoming glow along our driveway. If you would like to assist with assembly of the luminaries, please contact any member of the Board of Worship (Dianna Roll, Karen Harris, Sonya Thelin).

December 30 worship

Sunday morning worship on December 30 will be a non-communion celebration of lessons and seasonal carols.

SPECIAL CHOIR MUSIC DURING UPCOMING HOLIDAYS

The choir is preparing for the holidays. Add your voice to their musical offerings by joining weekly rehearsals on Wednesday nights at 7:00. If you would like to sing in Sermon in Song, rehearsals are underway. Please contact George Biemel for more information.

Sunday evening Worship and Praise services continue. Please join us at 5:00 p.m. for this 45-50 minute, “come as you are” service with singing, a short message, and communion.

Theological Resources

"And we speak of these things in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual things to those who are spiritual" 1 Corinthians 2:13

Recent discussions and emails have discussed ELCA theology and assert contrasts between the ELCA and NALC. One suggestion that came up was to investigate the ELCA's theology. There is a resource available to anyone, but especially to Lutherans that discusses ELCA theology every month. That resource is Living Lutheran magazine. Over the past several years, Living Lutheran has run a series of articles on Lutheran theology featuring ELCA seminary professors and other Lutheran writers discussing specific theological concepts and questions. There were a number of them last year related to the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation. You can find them by going to livinglutheran.org and at <https://www.livinglutheran.org/tag/deeper-understandings/>.

Living Lutheran is the ELCA's magazine publication. It is available by subscription, either mail or electronic. Significant parts of it are available to anyone at their website. Living Lutheran includes ELCA, Lutheran and general church news; reflections by various ELCA authors including Bishop Elizabeth Eaton, Martin Marty, Peter W. Marty, and many others. Its articles cover a variety of topics including on-going coverage of congregational life, global and domestic mission, family matters, spiritual practices and resources, and more.

As the magazine of the ELCA, Living Lutheran's mission is to:

- Nurture awareness of Christ's presence in our lives and the world
- Share stories of God's people living their faith
- Connect readers with the global Christian community
- Provide an open forum for discussion
- Challenge readers to bring God's grace and care to all

The most recent issue was on Heaven and Hell. The article in the issue is very pertinent to some of the questions that have come up in the congregation related to universal salvation, as well as heaven and hell.

ADDRESS SERVICE REQUESTED

Our Purpose: To share God's love and grace through our words and actions.

Our Vision: To be a "called and gathered" family of faith whose members so fully experience the undeserved love of God that we are moved to express that same love of God, in our relationships with one another and our whole community . . .
