*And the one who was sitting on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." — Revelation 21:5

Greetings Fellowship Members and Friends!

As we step into a new year, these words from Revelation ring with a particular kind of promise. They remind us that God's work of renewal is not confined to the turning of a calendar page, nor to the resolutions we make with the best of intentions. God's "newness" is deeper, quieter, and far more enduring. It is the steady, patient work of grace unfolding in our lives and in our world.

January often brings a mix of emotions. Some of us feel energized by fresh starts. Others carry the weight of unfinished stories, lingering griefs, or hopes deferred. Wherever you find yourself, the good news is this: God meets us right there. Not once we've improved ourselves, not once we've organized our closets or perfected our habits, but right in the beautiful, complicated middle of our real lives.

In this season, I invite you to look for the small signs of God's renewing work. It might be a conversation that softens your heart, a moment of unexpected generosity, or the courage to take one small step toward healing. Renewal rarely arrives with fireworks. More often, it comes like dawn—slowly, gently, faithfully.

As a congregation, we also have the opportunity to lean into God's newness together. In worship, in service, in learning, and in community, we get to practice being people shaped by hope. We get to remind one another that God is not finished with us, with our neighbors, or with this world we love.

My prayer for you this January is simple: that you would sense God's presence in the ordinary rhythms of your days, and that you would trust the One who is always making all things new—including you.

I also want to thank you for the Christmas cards, money, goodies, and thoughtful gifts. Your kindness and generosity mean so much to me and my family, and we are truly blessed to be part of this loving church community.

Blessings and peace to you in this new year. See you in church!

Pastor Robin

Thank you!

Dear Friends at Fellowship Lutheran Church,

Thank you so much for honoring me on my final Sunday as your organist. My career as a church musician began at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Newcomerstown, Ohio when I was a senior in high school. Through the years, "A Mighty Fortress" has been one of my favorite hymns. It was a delight to play it for the prelude on Reformation Sunday! I appreciate the kindness, prayers, gifts and many compliments that I received during my time with you.

Blessings!
Dixie Heck

Philippians 4:12-13 “I know what it is to have little, and I know what it is to have plenty. In any and all circumstances I have learned the secret of being well fed and of going hungry, of having plenty and of being in need. I can do all things through him who strengthens me.” (NRSVue)

The music from the Christmas Eve service is still in my mind. What a beautiful service. Thank you to our pianists for their gifts of music and Pastor Robin for her message. The message of the angel to the shepherds resonates well with me. Do not be afraid. How many times this past year I found myself fearful of what may come next yet somehow things worked out. I found a measure of peace during worship that will stay with me for a long time.

What brings you peace? Is it being with family or friends, enjoying a good meal, a relaxing evening at home? What about peace at church? Good music, welcoming worship, seeing friends that you only see at church? What else can we do to keep the peace going and expand on it?

As we move into the new year, we have much to celebrate. There are a lot of activities already being planned for 2026. We will need your participation to help make them successful. Please watch your bulletins for details as the year unfolds.

This past fall we offered a seminar on retirement. What seminars would you like to see in this new year? Please let us know. We are not mind readers so please do tell us what you would like to do for activities or seminars.

We have a need for worship servers. There are many roles that need to be filled on a given Sunday. While we have some dedicated people, we could use a lot more. We will gladly help you take on a new role at church!

There is so much about Fellowship Lutheran Church and being a member of it that brings much peace and joy to me. There is a light that beckons to us to come and worship and be led by God in our lives. I hope that light and peace is there for you as well.

WHAT – What activities do you want to do?

CAN – Choose what we can do.

WE – Not just leadership, but all of us

DO – Let's get busy!

In Christ,
Ruth Albert

“And while they were there, the time came for her baby to be born. She gave birth to her first child, a son. She wrapped him snugly in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger, because there was no lodging available for them.” Luke Ch. 2, vs.6-7

11/30 - The Fellowship congregation decorated our church, quickly and expertly. The children did their usual wonderful decoration of the tree, assisted and supervised by parents. Several ladies, assisted by fellows on ladders, placed wreaths where they belong after getting the bows to look just right. A team of 3 or 4, led by Andy Smith, was able to wrap our pine garland with new silver decor. Andy put it up in the narthex as we wrapped. Our Christmas decorating was accomplished fast and efficiently thanks to many generous members. As always, a big thanks goes to the Farel family for the large banners they get placed each year on the front wall.

12/3 - Advent Family Night was attended by 12 people. Those who came enjoyed an excellent potluck with wonderful conversations. Pastor gave us an inspiring devotion on waiting. She then helped us make a simple rock craft we were encouraged to keep close to us for inspiration. Lastly, we were able to exercise our voices in singing Christmas hymns we each chose. Piano accompaniment was provided by our new church musician, Susie McNutt.

12/7 - The Baptism of Julian Oliver McCormick was celebrated during our worship service. Julian is the son of Sarah and Nate, grandson of Sonya Thelin. Pastor Robin offered a Healing Service after worship.

12/14 - FLC was closed for the day by Church Council due to record-setting low temperatures and snow.

12/21 - A joint worship was held with the Korean Joeun Methodist Church. Pastors Jong Pai and Robin Wargowsky presided over communion and Pastor Robin delivered the sermon.

12/23 - Pastor, Tracy, and I put up the poles for the aisle candles. George Biemel put all the pole necessities in the library room for us.

12/24 - Christmas Eve candlelight worship with Communion was held at 7 pm with music starting at 6:30 pm. Beautiful poinsettias given by our members decorated the steps of the altar, and luminary bags made by the youth Sunday School class and the Cardimens lined our sidewalk and driveway. Dianna Roll and her grandchildren put out the luminaries.

12/28 - Ruth Albert will lead our congregation in a service of lessons and carols.

Dates to remember:

December 26-31 - Pastor Robin on vacation

January 4 - Undecorate the church after worship
