

The largest complete Pictorial History of Greenbrier County is being compiled. This new hardback, 300 page book will include school groups, town views, churches, jobs, family photos, buildings and will focus on each individual town.

Mark Romano is editing this new once in a lifetime collection. He is the author of 20 books, including A Pictorial History of Webster County, A Pictorial History of Nicholas County, and recently the number 1, Amazon Military Pictorial, One Lives One Dies.

We need your help. The cost of printing an archival, hardback book of timeless, black and white prints, professionally designed book will cost over $25,000. For the printing alone.

If you are a full page donor, we will include up to 2 photos on your page and be among the first people to receive a personally signed free, edition with free shipping.

1/2 page donors may use 1 photograph and have free shipping of your book and personally signed.

1/4 page sponsors will receive a personally signed copy.

To help sponsors this wonderful project, we are offering commemorative stories on your families, business, classes, organizations, and histories.

We are offering these in 4 monthly payments as long as they are paid by July 1, 2023.

A Pictorial History of Greenbrier County

This will be a family heirloom keepsake that will be treasured for generations.

We are still accepting your photographs. They must be identified family photos, Images that were taken in Greenbrier County that would have a universal appeal. Actual photos are the best for us to copy, but you can send high resolution images scanned at a minimum of 300 dpi and 4x5 to 8x10 size saved as a tif or jpeg. If you have a large collection and would like us to copy it, please contact Mark via email or phone text if possible.
