

Joe Baird Anne Hartley Erika may not be saying much right now, but please don't take that to mean she's not doing anything. I can promise you that she is working very hard on this - even though it may not be readily apparent. If this initiative succeeds, it is in large part due to her efforts that have gone unnoticed. We would not be where we are today without her help.

Like · Reply · 1y

Joe Baird Lee Dixon - how many of these multiple financial institutions wanting to issue them over $20 million have actually delivered?

Like · Reply · 1y

Joe Baird Lee Dixon - True outside audits haven't been done at MCA either. For crying out loud, when I was treasurer I wasn't even allowed to review expense reports!

Like · Reply · 1y

Lee Dixon Joe Baird Why would Mason need them to deliver before the owner of the land and building was ready to sell? The fact that all 4 did their due diligence and rated Mason Investment Grade says all that needs to be said.

Like · Reply · 1y

Lee Dixon Joe Baird Are you claiming that you never had access to Mason's Google Drive with all of their financial information in it?

Like · Reply · 1y

Joe Baird Lee Dixon - Why isn't the owner read to sell? I think there is a lot more to this story...

Like · Reply · 1y

Joe Baird Lee Dixon - Of course I had access - I am not aware that the expense reports were stored on that Google Drive. I had to request scanned images that were emailed to me, and the scanning job was so sloppy that I couldn't tell what I was looking at. I could post copies of these sloppy