I just got off the phone with Dr. Patton's office. CCPS is working on it and assured me that we will have an answer to what will happen soon. Basically they have to wait for the 30th to pass. 🙏

Mark Russo Tamara. We appreciate all you and the hard workers are doing to uncover the facts. That's all we want. The facts. We can then decide on our own who we agree Brian Thornburg Any enlightening words from Superintendent Patton? I feel like an anxious kid waiting for my parents to walk out of the principal's office.

Tamara Murphy Switken 🛡️ She did mention that there would be a CCPS board meeting the week of the 8th. She said check next week for the exact time and date.

They want to keep the school open, but with new leadership.

We just have to wait and see at this point.

Brian Thornburg Tamara Murphy Switken The between the lines analysis says that the school will close if the current leadership stays. The only likely way for the dominoes to fall to allow the school to stay open is if an indictment comes next week against the board a... See More

Tamara Murphy Switken  Brian Thornburg I don't want to speculate. I think it's important that we all attend the board meeting and present the facts and only the facts. We can not make this a personal attack on Kelly. We must take the high road and know the TRUTH will be unveiled.

🔒 K.D. Landis Here's a "for instance"... (worst case scenario) say the school does close, but has the opportunity to re open under new leadership... do the children who are already in the school have to re enter a lottery system to get into a school that was taken away from them?

I know I'm way ahead of myself but I really dont want to put my kids in another school just to pull them AGAIN. We've already pulled from public once to go to MCA. (Best choice we've made for them) but I dont want to have to do it again... I just assume we homeschool until we know if we can have another chance.

🔒 Angela Thompson Villanueva Tamara Murphy Switken My other major concern is regarding the teachers that are so dear to us. What will happen to them? I know that if I was a teacher there I would be looking around for other employment. It would not be the same school without these amazing teachers.

Angela Thompson Villanueva I completely agree. Unfortunately we have to wait for CCPS to make their move. I don't like waiting either 🙄😞

Olivia Durst Angela Thompson Villanueva I agree. My heart goes out to them. It's probably not the job they desire, but CCPS will need extra help of mca closes the district will have to absorb 800 people

Angela Thompson Villanueva Olivia Durst Wow! I hadn't thought about that idea. Actually probably only 1/2 to 2/3 of the kids would go to public schools I think. Quite a bunch of us left homeschooling or private schools to try Mason. Although according to Kelly, resorbing those students is what CCPS has wanted all along since we are "taking taxpayer funds" away from the district by putting our kids in a charter school. 🙄😞

Angela Thompson Villanueva Olivia Durst I hope you are right and they want to help us patch up this situation and keep our school and not use us to help them shut it down completely. I don't really trust anybody right now. Even today with Hull's email I found myself wanting to believe him and questioning everything we have been doing. At least he had the will to do the right thing and resign. I don't agree with Kelly that we all celebrated his resignation. He is a man of enormous talent and intelligence and could have been the principal the school needs if he had been more willing to accept criticism and handle conflicts with more humility. The day he resigned was sad for me even though I know it was the right thing for him to do. I do wish no harm to him or his family in this.

Olivia Durst Sadly, i don't think hull resigned out of the goodness of his heart....that is more smoke and mirrors. He is a master manipulator:(

Angela Thompson Villanueva Olivia Durst That may be true but for some people like myself there are real mixed feelings and an odd draw to his rhetoric. It's kind of like a weird codependent thing. Oh well.
