

Bike Hire Waiver Agreement

General Safety and Security

Upon signing the hire agreement you accept responsibility for anyone using a bike supplied by Bracelands bike hire and confirm that you are satisfied with the condition of the items supplied and that they are fit for purpose. If you do notice any issues or problems with the equipment it must be raised before hire takes place where a replacement if available will then be supplied.

You and your party understand and agree that cycling is an activity that carries a certain degree of risk and accept that anyone using bikes and equipment supplied by Bracelands do so at entirely at their own risk.

Bracelands will not be held responsible for any mechanical failure due to any customer adjustments made to the bikes.

Additionally, Bracelands cannot be held responsible for accidents, injury or death relating to third parties or members of the hire party during the hire period.

We strongly suggest you check your home insurance policy for personal injury cover and make arrangements if not already covered. We recommend looking into insurance before hiring the bikes.

Legally you will need to be 14 and maybe asked for id when accompanied by an adult of over 21.

We will supply, with each bike hired, a helmet and a lock. Bracelands cannot be held responsible for any accident, injury or death that occurs as a result of not wearing helmets.

It is the responsibility of each user to ride responsibly and in a safe manner observing all the rules of the roads.

Each bike is supplied with a lock which must be used to secure the bike to an immovable object whenever it is left unattended. These periods should be kept to a minimum.

If a theft or loss occurs or any damage is done to the bikes it is your responsibility to inform a member of the Bracelands team immediately and you further acknowledge that you are also liable for all costs incurred including reasonable loss of hire and these costs can be recovered from your credit or debit card.

When the bikes and any accessories are in your possession you are responsible for keeping these items safe and using them in a manner that is fit for purpose.

Personal Safety and behaviour

Riding the hire bikes under the influence of alcohol, drugs and/or solvents is not permitted and will result in the immediate cancellation of the hire agreement and the return of bikes and accessories with no refund or any other obligation or further liability to you.

Insurance

We advise that you do not ride without personal and third party liability insurance. We strongly suggest you check your home insurance policy for personal injury cover and make arrangements if not already covered.

It is your responsibility to ensure that anyone using our bikes and accessories does so sensibly and applies respect to other cyclists, road users and the natural surrounding area.

You must follow the rules for cyclists as laid out in The Highway Code and you must not use the bikes on excessively rough and rutted un-metalled roads or on the beach.

Individual Health

Upon accepting this hire agreement you are confirming that all members of your party are in good health and no one has eyesight that is below the minimum standard required for a road driving test.

You also confirm that all members of your party are free from any medical condition or disability that may adversely affect the usual control of the bike.

BRACELANDS RESERVES THE RIGHT TO NOT ACCEPT OR FULFIL A BOOKING AND ALL BOOKINGS ARE SUBJECT TO AVAILABILITY.

These terms and conditions are governed by English Law.
