All funds due under these By-Laws, and the Long-Term Lease and the Management Agreement, which are attached to the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached, and said Declaration of Condominium, are common expenses of this Condominium. The portion of the common expenses of this Condominium due under the Long-Term Lease shall be fixed and determined and levied by the Lessor, under the provisions thereof, and Management Firm, as long as the Management Agreement remains in effect and thereafter, the Board of Directors shall include said assessment determination in its budget and assessments, and shall collect and remit same to the Lessor.

The Board of Directors has delegated the power and duty of making and collecting assessments to the Management Firm, as long as the Management Agreement remains in effect, except the Board of Directors retains the authority to make assessments as to the following~~

(2) ~~Acquisition of units, as provided in Article IX, of these By-Laws, and pursuant to Article XIX. J., of the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached, subject to the written approval of such parties as are specified therein.~~

(d) ~~The Management Firm, as long as the Management Agreement remains in effect and, thereafter, the Board of Directors, shall may, if it desires, adopt a budget for each fiscal year that shall include the estimated funds required to defray the common expenses and to provide and maintain funds to cover current expenses, and which shall include all receipts and expenditures within the year for which the budget is made, including a reasonable allowance for contingencies and working funds, (except expenditures chargeable to reserves, to additional improvements, or to operations); reserve for deferred maintenance which shall occur less frequently than annually; reserve for replacement which shall include funds for repair or replacement required because of damage, depreciation or obsolescence; betterments, which shall include the funds to be used for capital expenditures for additional improvements or additional personal property that will be a part of the common elements; operations – the amount of which may be to provide working funds or to meet losses. To the extent required by the Administrative Rules, the annual budget shall include all estimated expenses or expenditures including the categories set forth in F.S. 718.504(2)(c). As to those elements of such budget which constitutes an expense in connection with Century Village Club recreational facilities, such expenses shall be determined by the Lessor thereunder and shall be incorporated in the Condominium's budget for the ensuing fiscal year. A copy of the proposed budget and a notice stating the date, time and place of the Board meeting shall be mailed to or served on the owner of each unit not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the date of that meeting. The Board of Directors further has the power to amend (increase) the annual budget should same be necessary to pay for valid common expenses, or to amend (decrease) the annual budget should same be warranted, all in the discretion of the Board of Directors.~~

Section 5. Application of Payments and Co-Mingling of Funds. All sums collected by the Association from assessments may be co-mingled in a single fund or divided into more than one fund, as determined by the Management Firm, as long as the Management Agreement remains in effect, and thereafter, by the Board of Directors of the Association. All assessment payments by a unit owner shall be applied as to interest, delinquencies, costs and attorney's fees', other charges, expenses and advances, rent under the Long-Term Lease, as provided herein and in the Declaration of Condominium, and general or special assessments, in such manner and amounts as the Management Firm, as long as the Management Agreement remains in effect, determines in its sole discretion, and, thereafter, as the Board of Directors determines in its sole discretion. The ~~Management firm may co-mingle the Association's fund with the funds of other entities in Century Village for whom it is acting as Manager. The foregoing is subject to the provisions of the Long-Term Lease.~~

Section 6. Acceleration of Assessment Installments Upon Default. If a unit owner shall be in default in the payment of an installment upon any assessment, the ~~Management Firm or the~~ Board of Directors may accelerate the remaining monthly installments for the fiscal year upon notice thereof to the unit owner and, thereupon, the unpaid balance of the assessment shall become due upon the date stated in the Notice, but not less than fifteen (15) days after delivery of or the mailing of such Notice to the unit owner.

ARTICLE VII. ADDITIONS OR ALTERATIONS

There shall be no additions or alterations to the common elements or limited common elements of the Condominium which this Association operates and maintains, except as specifically provided for in Article XIV – B of the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached. ~~The Management Firm shall have the right to make assessments for additions or alterations to the common elements or limited common elements, without the approval of the Board of Directors of this Association and the members of this Association, provided said assessment therefore does not exceed the amount specified in the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached, and further provided that said assessment is in accordance with these By-Laws and the said Declaration of Condominium.~~

ARTICLE VIII. COMPLIANCE AND DEFAULT

Section I. Violation.

I. In the event of a violation (other than the non-payment of an assessment) by the unit owner in any of the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium, of these By-Laws, or of the applicable portions of the Condominium Act, the Association, by direction of its Board of Directors may notify the Unit owner by written notice of said breach, transmitted by mail, and if such violation shall continue for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of the notice, the Association, through its Board of Directors, shall have the right to treat such violation as an intentional and inexcusable and material breach of the Declaration, of the By-Laws, or of the pertinent provisions of the Condominium Act, and the Association may then, at its option, have the following elections:

(a) An action at law to recover for its damage, on behalf of the Association or on behalf of the other unit owners.

(b) An action in equity to enforce performance on the part of the unit owner; or

(c) An action in equity for such equitable relief as may be necessary under the circumstances, including injunctive relief.

(d) An action to levy a fine against the Unit of the offending Owner(s).

II. Each and every such violation shall be the responsibility of and attributed to the owner (and his unit) regardless of whether the offending party is in fact the owner or the owner's tenant(s), or their family, agent(s), guest(s), visitor(s), servant(s), etc. As such, the owner is responsible for the actions of the owner's and family, agents(s), guest(s), visitor(s), servant(s), etc.

Upon finding by the Court that the violation complained of is willful and deliberate, the unit owner so violating shall reimburse the Association for reasonable attorney's fees incurred by it in bringing such action. Failure on the part of the Association to maintain such action at law or in equity within thirty (30) days from date of a written request, signed by a unit owner, sent to the Board of Directors, shall authorize any unit owner to bring an action in equity or suit at law on account of the violation, in the manner provided for in the Condominium Act. Any violations which are deemed by the Board of Directors to be a hazard to public health, may be corrected immediately as an emergency matter by the Association, and the cost thereof shall be charged to the unit owner as a specific item, which shall be a lien against said unit with the same force and effect as if the charge were of part of the common expenses.

III. Fines. No fine shall be imposed against an owner by the Association for any violation unless and until the offending party or parties (which always shall include the owner) has/have been given not less than fourteen. (14) days written notice of the following:

- a. The owner responsible for the violation(s).
- b. The nature of the violation and the name(s) of the violator(s), if known.
- c. The maximum amount of fine for each violation of the particular provision of the Condominium Documents, and/or Association Rules and Regulations and/or law.
- d. The date, time and place of a meeting, at which meeting the Committee referred to below shall determine whether the owner (for himself/herself, family guests, servants, agents, etc., or other Occupants of the unit), is guilty of the Violation, and if so, shall impose a fine for the violation.
- e. The Association shall be permitted to include in the Committee meeting notice, the following optional information: A hearing shall be scheduled at a specified day and time and at a specified time on each day thereafter; with each day that the violation continues constituting a separate violation resulting in a separate fine.

IV. Level of Fines. A fine for each violation shall be in amount(s) as set by the Board of Directors not to exceed the maximum amount permitted by the Condominium Act as amended from time to time. This fine may be levied at the particular rate for each day that the violation occurs, on a running per day basis, so long as the Board's notice informs the offending party or parties of this possibility. The maximum total fine shall be as provided for in the Condominium Act as amended from time to time.

V. Record Keeping. The Association shall maintain a file of all notices issued and findings of the Committee in order that a record of offenses and offenders may be kept.

VI. Hearing Before Committee of Owners.

a. A party against whom a fine may be levied by the Association shall have a reasonable opportunity to respond, to present evidence, and to provide written and oral argument on all issues involved, to have counsel present, and shall have an opportunity at the hearing to review, challenge and respond to any material considered by the Association.

b. Failure of the owner and the violator in question to appear at the scheduled hearing may result in the automatic vote by the Committee that the owner is in violation, whereupon the fine may be levied without further advance warning.

c. The Committee shall be comprised of such members as provided for in the Condominium Act and Administrative Rules, as amended from time to time and in the absence of such provision, then as selected by Board of Directors.

VII. Collection of the Fine. Once a fine is deemed to be due and owing, the Association shall provide written notice to the owner of the fine due owing, with due date for payment.

VIII. Concurrent Remedies. The fine system may be invoked independently of or concurrently with any other remedies provided for in the Condominium Documents or Law. As such, the fine system is not a condition precedent to the Association's pursuit of other remedies available to it under the Condominium Documents or under the law. Also, the fact that a fine is levied and/or paid does not constitute compliance with the Condominium Documents, Association Rules and Regulations and law, if in fact the violation(s) remain(s). An Association may suspend the voting rights of a parcel or Member for the nonpayment of any fee, fine, or other monetary obligation due to the Association that is more than 90 days delinquent and may suspend and revoke other rights as set forth in the Declaration as allowed by law, and as may be amended from time to time.

Section 2. Negligence or Carelessness of Unit Owner, etc. All unit owners shall be liable for the expense of any maintenance, repair or replacement rendered necessary by his act, neglect or carelessness, or by that of any member of his family, or his or their guests, employees, agent or lessees, but only to the extent that such expense is not met by the proceeds of insurance carried by the Association. Such liability shall include any increase in insurance rates occasioned by use, misuse, occupancy or abandonment of any unit or its appurtenances. Nothing herein contained, however, shall be construed so as to modify any waiver by insurance companies of rights of subrogation. The expense for any maintenance, repair or replacement required, as provided in this Section, shall be charged to said Unit owner as a specific item, which shall be a lien against said unit with the same force and effect as if the charge were a part of the common expenses. This section shall also be interpreted as meaning and including the Condominium property and the recreational facilities under the Long-Term Lease, both real and personal.

Section 3. Costs and Attorney's Fees. In any proceeding arising because of an alleged default by a unit owner, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover the costs of the proceeding and such reasonable attorneys' fees as may be determined by the Court.

Section 4. No Waiver of Rights. The failure of the Association or of a unit owner to enforce any right, provision, covenant or condition which may be granted by the Condominium documents, shall not constitute a waiver of the right of the Association or unit owner to enforce such right, provision, covenant or condition of the future.

Section 5. No Election of Remedies. All rights, remedies and privileges granted to the Association or unit owner, pursuant to any terms, provisions, covenants or conditions of the Condominium documents, shall be deemed to be cumulative, and the exercise of any one or more shall not be deemed to constitute an election of remedies, nor shall it preclude the party thus exercising the same from exercising such other and additional right, remedies or privileges as may be granted to such other party by Condominium documents, or at law, or in equity.

~~Section 6. The Management Firm, as long as the Management Agreement remains in effect, shall act on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Association, and on its own behalf, with the same power and authority granted to the Board of Directors of the Association as to all matters provided under this Article VIII., Section 1 through 5 inclusive and said Sections 1 through 6 inclusive of this Article VIII., shall be interpreted as including within the context of such sections, violations of the Management Agreement attached to the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached. Section 2 above shall also be interpreted as meaning and including the Condominium property and the recreational facilities under the Long Term Lease, both real and personal. The Management Firm may act upon its own determination or upon the determination and direction of the Board of Directors of the Association, as to Section 1 herein above. Should the Management Firm fail to act, as directed by the Board of Directors as to Section 1 above, the Board of Directors may act on their own behalf; however, due to the diverse types of situations that may arise between unit owners, stemming out of alleged violations, the Management Firm shall not be liable or responsible to the Association, its Board of Directors, or the unit owners, for its failure to act as directed by the Board of Directors, as to Section 1, hereinabove.~~

ARTICLE IX. ACQUISITION OF UNITS

~~Section 1. Voluntary Sale or Transfer. Upon receipt of a unit owner's written notice of intention to sell or lease, as described in Article XI., of the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached, the Board of Directors shall have full power and authority to consent to the transaction, as specified in said Notice, or object to same for good cause, or to designate a person other than the Association as designee, pursuant to the provisions of said Article XI., without having to obtain the consent of the membership thereto. The Board of Directors shall have the further right to designate the Association as being "willing to purchase, lease or rent", upon the proposed terms upon adoption of a resolution by the Board of Directors recommending such purchase or leasing to the membership, but not withstanding the adoption of such resolution and such designation by the Board of Directors, the Association shall not be bound and shall not so purchase or lease, except upon the authorization and approval of the affirmative vote of voting members casting not less than sixty percent (60%) of the total votes of the unit owners present at any regular or special meeting of the unit owners wherein said matter is voted upon. The provisions of Article XI.E.6., of the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached, and the provisions of the Management Agreement attached to the aforesaid Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached, and the provisions of the Management Agreement attached to the aforesaid Declaration of Condominium, shall supersede the provisions herein relative thereto.~~

Section 2. Acquisition on Foreclosure. At any foreclosure of a unit, the Board of Directors may, with the authorization and approval by the affirmative vote of voting members casting not less than sixty percent (60%) of the total votes of the unit owners present at any regular or special meeting of the unit owners wherein said matter is voted upon, acquire in the name of the Association, or its designee, a Condominium parcel being foreclosed. The term "foreclosure", as used in this Section, shall mean and include any foreclosure of any lien, excluding lien for assessments. The power of the Board of Directors to acquire a Condominium parcel at any foreclosure sale shall never be interpreted as any requirement or obligation on the part of the said Board of Directors or of the Association to do so at any foreclosure sale – the provisions hereof being permissive in nature and for the purpose of setting forth the power in the Board of Directors to do so should the requisite approval of the voting members be obtained. The Board of Directors shall not be required to obtain the approval of unit owners at the foreclosure sale of a unit due to the foreclosure of the Association's lien for assessments under the provisions of Article X, of the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached.

ARTICLE X. AMENDMENTS TO THE BY-LAWS

The By-Laws may be altered, amended or added to at any duly called meeting of the unit owners, provided:

- (1) Notice of the meeting shall contain a statement of the proposed Amendment.
- (2) The Amendment shall be approved by the affirmative vote of the voting members casting not less than ~~three-fourths (3/4ths)~~ two-thirds (2/3) of the total votes of the unit owners and,
- (3) Said Amendments shall be recorded and certified, as required by the Condominium Act. ~~Notwithstanding anything above to the contrary, until one of the events in Article III, Section 6, of the By-Laws occurs, these By-Laws may not be amended without a prior resolution requesting the said Amendment from the Board of Directors.~~
- (4) Notwithstanding the foregoing, these By-Laws may only be amended with the written approval of the Lessor under the Long-Term Lease, and as required for the Amendment to the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached.

ARTICLE XI. NOTICES

Whatever Notices are required to be sent hereunder, shall be delivered or sent in accordance with the applicable provisions for notices, as set forth in the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached.

ARTICLE XII. INDEMNIFICATION

The foregoing rights shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which such Director or Officer may be entitled.

ARTICLE XIII. LIABILITY SURVIVES TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

The termination of membership in the Condominium shall not relieve or release any such former owner or member from any liability or obligations incurred under or in any way connected with the Condominium during the period of such ownership and membership, or impair any rights or remedies which the Association may have against such former owner and member arising out of or in any way connected with such ownership and membership, and the covenants and obligations incident thereto.

ARTICLE XIV. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Notwithstanding the duty of the ~~Management Firm and the~~ Association to maintain and repair parts of the Condominium property, the ~~Management Firm and~~ Association shall not be liable for
