3. Descriptions

Our roses are sold as bare root roses and will not be in bloom at the time of dispatch.

Whilst we endeavor to provide descriptions that accurately reflect our interpretation of the plant whilst in bloom, as with any living product the descriptions will not match every plant in bloom as this will vary due to climate and ground conditions.

Photographs are purely for illustrative purposes and customers should allow for a degree of colour variance as a result image reproduction, garden conditions and seasonal changes.

4. Guarantee

In the event that your plant has failed to grow, please return it to us for inspection. We will replace any plant that has been properly planted and cared for in accordance with our Planting and Aftercare Guide, subject to the following conditions:- i) a flat rate of £5.00 must be paid by the customer for carriage and packaging of replacement plants, unless a further order is placed in which case the carriage contribution will be waived, ii) all plants must be returned no later than 30th September following dispatch ie. plants sold between November 2018 and March 2019 must be returned by September 2019, iii) any plants that a) show signs of being improperly planted, pruned, fed or cared for; b) show signs of spray damage; c) have suckers which have not been removed; d) have suffered frost damage; or e) have failed as a result of inclement weather, will not be replaced; iv) in the event that the original variety is no longer available, we will select a similar variety of equal merit in substitution, v) any replacement plants are not under guarantee as repeated failures indicates improper husbandry or planning conditions, and vi) replacements will be dispatched at the start of the next bare root rose season.

5. Legal

Many varieties sold by us are subject to Plant Breeders Rights in terms of the Plant Varieties and Seeds Act 1964. These varieties may not be propagated for sale or sold, except under licence from the holders of the Rights.

Due to the perishable nature of bare root roses, there is no right of cancellation and these goods cannot be returned under the Consumer Contracts Regulations 2013. Order may be cancelled at any time prior to dispatch and will be refunded within 28 days.
