WELCOME BACK

Dear Dance Family,
Welcome to Season Three at Dani's Dance Dynamics. We are looking forward to a great year full of learning, discipline, and lots of fun. Each month a newsletter will come out giving you information on upcoming events. Please check your email daily to stay tune with everything that will be taking place.

First Week of Dance Reminders

This is the first week of dance, please review your dancers schedule. We are aware that some of your dancers attire may not have come in yet so your dancer will need to wear any comfortable dancewear such as leggings, tank top, etc. for this week. Parents are not able to sit in on any classes. Please review our studio policies and expectations that can be found on our studio website.
