

AWGA General Meeting 11/3/2025

Diane Johnson called the meeting to order at 1:02 p.m. She stated that a couple of things were on the agenda.

First approve the Bylaw changes.

Diane asked if there were any questions or comments to the Bylaws, No motions or changes from the floor.

Sharon Pope made a motion to approve the bylaw changes and LuAnn Stogner second the motion. Bylaw changes approved

Second on the agenda – approve the election of the new officers.

President – Debbie Hastings – No motions for nominees from the floor – vote taken for Debbie Hastings – Passed unanimously

Secretary – Angelita Garcia and Patrice James nominated – No other nominations from the floor – Vote taken for Angelita and Patrice - Angelita won by majority.

Playday Chairman (new position) Lynda Duvall – no nominations from the floor – vote taken for Lynda Duvall – Passed unanimously

Info Tech (new position) Joan Mims – no nominations from the floor – vote taken and Joan Mims – Passed unanimously

New Business – Diane reported Lynda Duvall has requested that when playing at Tierra Verde – the first groups on all holes must make sure all red and orange tees are set correctly. Also, when bunkers are not in play – when pulling out of bunker the bunker must stay between you and the pin.

Sharon Wieland suggested that all low handicaps should play from the red tees – Diane suggested this should be taken up in the new year. Item tabled.

Sharon Wieland also suggested that people getting an eagle should get something other than a pin. This item is tabled for next year.

Sharon Pope made a motion for a 9-hole league since there seems to be some interest in it. Donna Doss volunteered to talk to the pros about that and send out emails to general membership to get the number of individuals that might want to do this.

Donna Doss talked about the Christmas party to be held at BJ's at the Highlands Mall – AWGA donated some money – there will be NO Toys at the Christmas Party. Bring donated toys to the golf course. She also wants to incorporate a suggestion box for tournaments (good -bad – prizes -anything someone wants to suggest)

Donna Doss's team to help this year is Debbie Cook, Jodie Anderson, Brenda Woodard and Maggie Williams.

Awga Membership will stay the same as last year $80 + $1 for (HIO). Vicky Russell has requested members bring checks to AWGA Christmas party $80 check and $1 cash for HIO. If not attending Christmas party – members can send their checks to her.

Debbie Branagan made a motion to close the meeting. Meeting adjourned at 2:12 p.m.
