Presidents Message

Hello Everyone,

I am so happy to report about an event that some of our members participated in last month. I call it Fish hawks/Veterans fishing day. After such a great event, we might have to rename it the 1st Annual Fish hawks / Veterans fishing day and continue the tradition!!!! On Aug 13, we took 10 Veterans blow fishing for a day out in 5 boats. Then we all were treated to an outstanding BBQ afterwards. Dave Bye, Susan Guadagnino, Austin Murphy, Paul Schell, and I, boat owners, along with Denny Joyce, Nancy Guadagnino, Dale Raven, Whitey Dunlap, Tony Guadagnino, and George Royston, who acted as mates, went to Tony G's house with our boats as a jump off point to meet with the Vets! After having some coffee and bagels for breakfast, along with a gift of patriotic hats for everyone from Gloria Casswell, we loaded all the veterans on our different boats and headed out to the bay (no I won't tell you our secret spots here in the newsletter, but if you ask, I might tell you where we caught them!). After 5 hours of nonstop action, we all went back to Tony's house for an outstanding BBQ. While George, at the grill, was flipping the burgers, the rest of us were busy cleaning fish for the guys. I can't thank Cy and Tony and their children and grandchildren enough for setting up the tables, chairs, and tents the night before, having breakfast ready before we left and serving everyone at the BBQ. I also don't want to leave out my thanks to our boat Captains and of course their mates, along with George Royston, Robert O'Leary, Gloria Caswell from Bob's Bay Marina, and Liza from Creekside Outfitters who helped sponsor this event. Each Veteran went home with big bags of blowfish fingers and I'm sure sore arms, happy memories, and new friends. I, of course, am a happy and proud president of the best fishing club on the East coast! You can find many of the pictures Dave posts on our website. Thanks everyone for a great and memorable day! Our guest speaker this month is Avery Lentini who is the executive assistant of the Save Barnegat Bay organization and who will provide us with a short film. There will a time for questions about the condition of the bay. Birthdays this month are, William McGrath 2nd, Tom Kowitski 6th, Gene Makitra 10th, Derek LaBatch 12th, Nancy Eadie 16th, Jack Frederick 16th, and John Ward 20th. Happy Birthday all. As I told all the vets, and as a reminder to you, "You Have to Hook em to Cook em!"
See you at the meeting, Karl

*****LACEY FOOD BANK*******
SEPTEMBER 2022

Hi everyone,

As of late, the Fish Hawks have not been as generous with both our food and monetary donations as we have been in the past for the Lacey Food Bank. This could well reflect the times that we are living in now. Last month I asked for items that are kid friendly and I'm posting it again in hopes that our response is better this month. Again, here is the list:

Peanut butter

Jelly

Macaroni and cheese

Pasta and Spaghetti sauce

Cereals

Chicken noodle soup

SpaghettiOs

Snacks like pretzels, peanut butter crackers, Goldfish crackers, fruit snacks, cookies, etc.

Juice boxes

Apple juice

Applesauce

Let's strive for 100% participation this month with food donations from the Fish Hawks.

Just a reminder, as the holidays start to draw closer. Starting in October, the Lacey Food Bank will be collecting unwrapped items for the Children's XMAS. Last year the list of items ranged from socks, pajamas, sweatshirts and hats, gloves and scarves to snow boots and children's board games. Let's get behind the Lacey Food Bank Children's XMAS this year and make it another successful event for the children.

Let's make our September Lacey Food Bank Food & Monetary Donations a huge success.

Sincerely,
Ken Rylak

FISH HAWKS TOURNAMENT DAY BOAT TRIP

The cost is still $75.00 plus a tip for the mates. The club supplies sandwiches, chips, and drinks. All bait is supplied, but your welcome to bring your own secrete "you catch-um". Please see Whitey Dunlap or Bob Merkle at the meeting as we are taking deposits to reserve your space, or you can pre-pay. It's a great way to meet and fish with other club members.
