1. Please describe the purpose of your organization. What services does your organization provide? What group of people do you intend to impact with these proceeds? How does your organization impact our community? Please feel free to include publicity material should you feel it would adequately convey your responses.
2. Should you be chosen to receive the proceeds from this year's Spirit Week competition, for what purpose would the proceeds be used? Is there a goal in mind for the amount of money to be raised? Please submit an itemized budget for how this money will be spent.
3. How is your organization typically funded each year? Please describe your overall financial budget in regards to origin. (federal, state, etc.)
4. If chosen, how could your organization be involved in our Spirit Week before and during the week? Please explain your vision for the participation of your organization. Please include your ability to accept online payments for donations.
5. Has your organization been chosen to be the beneficiary of a Spirit Week in the past? Please describe your organization's experience with them and include the donation amount.

Complete this application on a separate paper and include any relevant materials you'd like to be considered with your application. If there are any digital materials, email them to mannspiritweek@gmail.com for consideration. All applications must be postmarked by January 1st, so please mail to:

160 Fairforest Way, Greenville, SC 29607, Attn: Student Council

The JL Mann Student Council will contact a few applications for interviews in January, and our decision on the 2024 Spirit Week beneficiary will be published in February. We kindly ask that your organization does not reach out directly to any students during the application process. The students spend a lot of time discussing and researching each organization before ultimately deciding on the best fit for Spirit Week. If students are contacted during the process, we reserve the right to remove your organization from consideration.
