

Dear friends, loved ones, and website visitors,

We pray for you and your loved ones:

Happy Holidays,
Merry Christmas,

And a peaceful New Year

filled with God's blessings.

In order to spend time with our family and prepare for CSS's scheduled release of Luke Alive, Volumes 1 & 2 in early January 2019, we shall not be posting new sermons on this website until after the holidays.

The Lord willing, we shall begin posting new sermons and have further book announcements by January 15.

We look forward to your frequent "visits" to www.robertblairbooks.com in 2019
