

Rhyming Through Genesis

Rhyme by Robert Blair
Illustrations by Joel Seibel

Adam spent time in the park.

What did he do in the dark?

As night animals came,

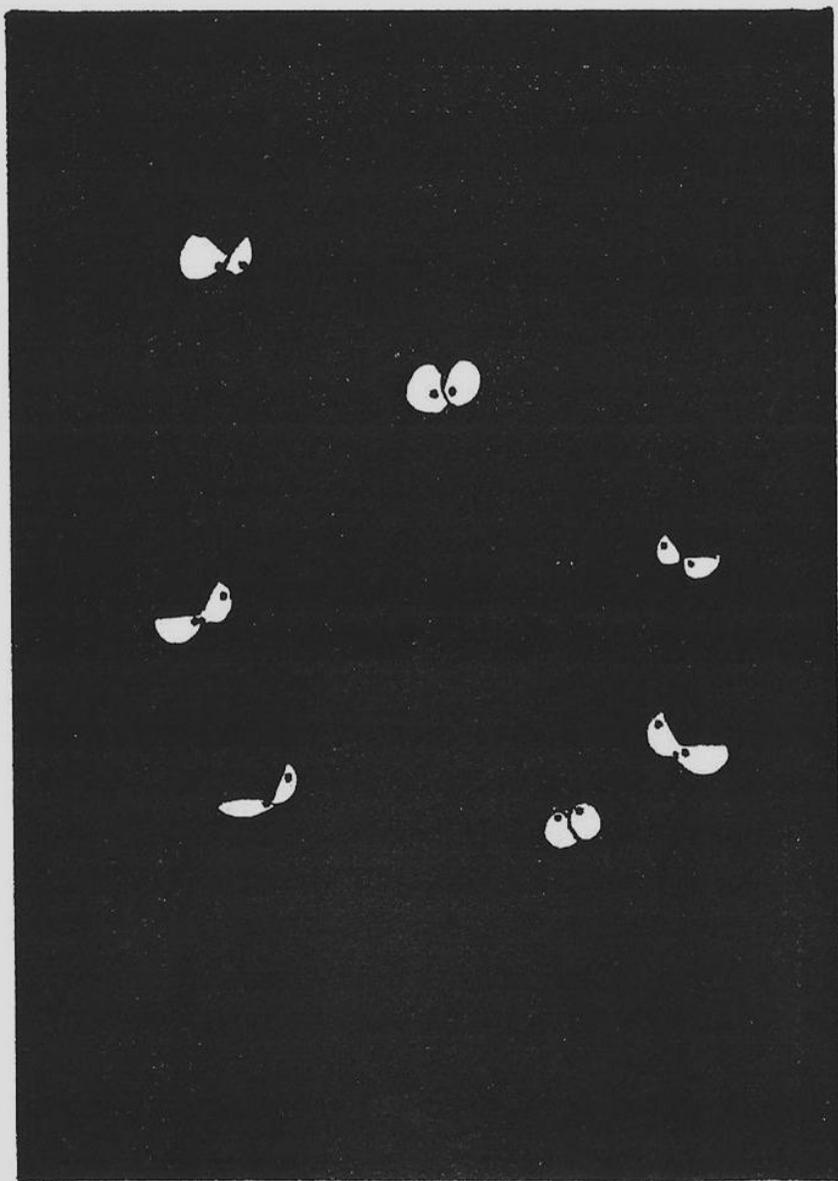

He gave each a name.

He heard wolves howl and coyotes, bark.

See Genesis 2:19, 20

What would call a leopard if you could give it a name?

What would you call owls?

Now Adam at first was alone.

“I’m lonesome,” the poor man did moan.

God put him to sleep,

In a snooze very deep.

And Eve, He formed from Adam’s rib-bone.

See Genesis 2:19-24

The fact that God created Eve from Adam made her very special, didn’t it?

Satan said to the man and Eve,

“Listen to me and believe.

Your life you’ll not waste,

If this fruit you now taste.

With knowledge, great things you’ll achieve.”

See Genesis 3:1-5

Why do you think Adam and Eve trusted the devil

and not God, who created them?

How much do you trust God?

