

Rhyming Through Genesis

Rhyme by Robert Blair -- Illustrations by Joel Seibel

Here Come the People

The first man the Lord made was Adam.

There was no girl to tell Adam “Scram!”

He was made from the ground,

With nice skin all around.

Be glad Adam was not macadam.

See Genesis 2:4-7

Macadam is a type of hard pavement often used on roads.
Would you like to be the only person in the world?

The Lord's Garden

Near some rivers, the Lord set Eden-Garden.

Nice Eden's lush ground didn't harden.

Of a tree God put there,

He said, "Touch it; don't dare."

That's one thing that I'll never pardon.

See Genesis 2:8, 9

That tree was called the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil.

Why do you think God did not want Adam to touch that tree?

Would you have obeyed God's order not to touch it?

LIFE-TREE

In the midst of Eden Place

God put Life-Tree in a space.

But Adam, the bad boy

Never touched the tree of joy.

How sad for the human race.

See Genesis 2:9

This tree was called the Tree of Life.

