

Rhyming Through Genesis

Rhyme by Robert Blair
Illustrations by Joel Seibel

OH, BROTHER!

Eve soon gave birth to another.

Little Cain had a new baby brother.

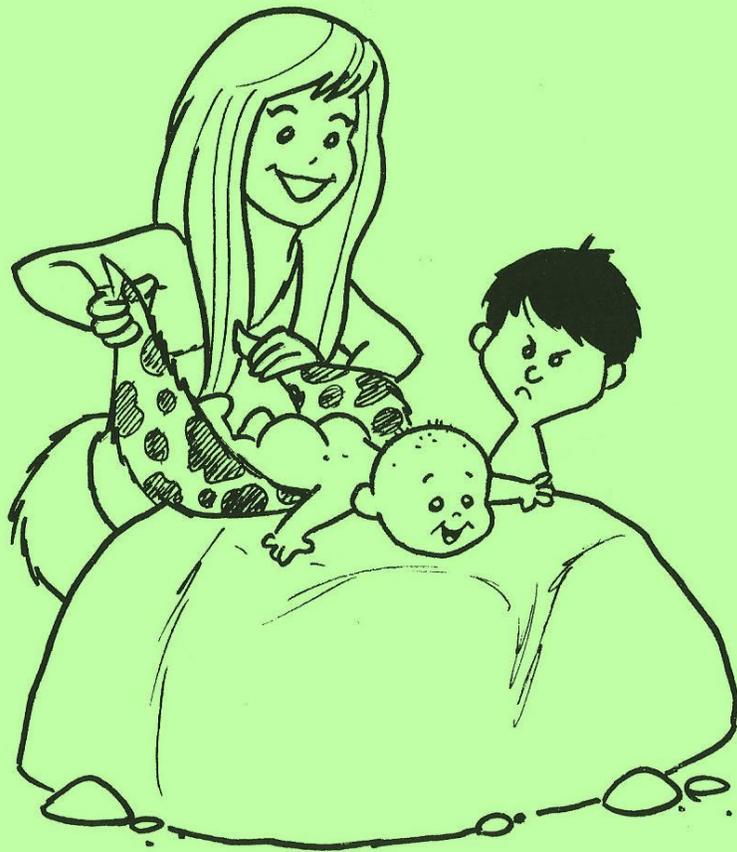

This son they named Abel.

That was really his label.

And Eve proved able as a mother.

See Genesis 3:8-20

Do you think things might have been different had Eve first given birth to a girl?
What if Abel had been a girl?

How to Give Donations

The donation by first-farmer Cain,

Was not from his Grade “A” grain.

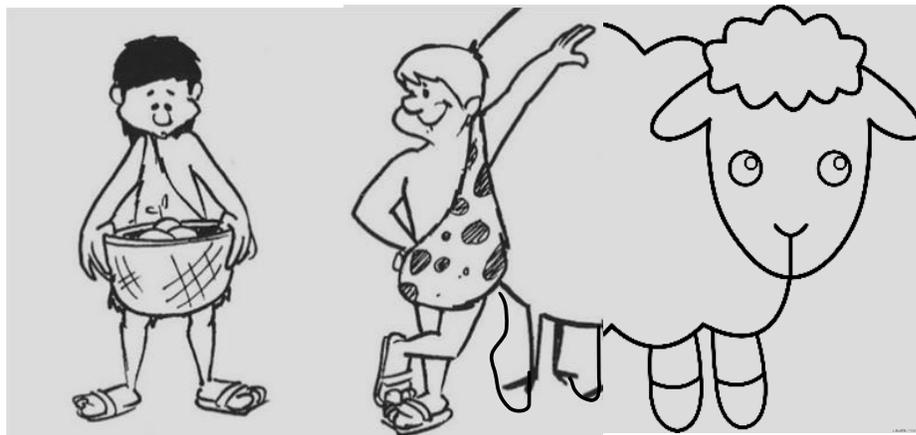

Abel was not cheap,

Giving the best of his sheep.

Cain looked like he had stomach pain.

Genesis 4:2-5

Why do you think God always wants us to do our best?

The Badness of Bitterness

To Cain the Lord said: “Don’t be bitter.

Do well and don’t be a quitter

If anger you have more,

Sin will be at your door,

You’ll be out and a lost bitter critter.”

See Genesis 4:6, 7

Why do you think we become bitter after we have not done our best while other have?

