The Read-A-Thon is HERE! Information was sent home last week on how to get your reader(s) set up for logging their minutes. If you haven't already done so, please get them set up so you can start logging minutes and spreading the word to your supporters!

Getting sponsors is easy! Marketing materials are ready for you to share. Spread the word and get support to rally around your Reader(s). Our Book Swap was a great success, thank you for carefully selecting a book for a new Reader to enjoy and treasure.

The Read-A-Thon ends February 4th, 2023.

Happy reading!

THREE RIVERS READS

Winter Weather Altered Drop Off

Winter weather is always unpredictable, and so are the companies that work to plow us all out. TRM does pay for premium service, but this still comes with limitations. The trigger for plowing and salting to happen is 1.5 inches, those of us who have had to navigate the drive alley know that even a dusting causes major issues related to slipping and getting stuck. In an effort to help alleviate this we have created the Winter Weather Altered Drop Off to make the morning drop safer and more efficient in the event the plows don't come. Please see the attached flyer for full information on this process. You will be notified via text and staff will be outside to guide you as you arrive to ensure this process is smooth and safe. Thank you for your partnership in this new process!

Kuklok's Corner

It feels like January came and now it is going in a flash! TRM students have been immersed in their works and enjoying the fresh blankets of snow. Our E2 classrooms are already anticipating February and the excitement of planning a valentine celebration. A group of E2 students met with me and told me that they want to celebrate the friendships and close bonds they have made while here at Three Rivers on Valentines day and this certainly warmed my heart. We will be asking for some donations to make this a special day and our E2 classrooms are busy thinking through the supplies and items they would like to have to make this successful. Initial donation thoughts are: decorations (streamers, table cloths, things to hang from the ceilings, etc.) and snack items. If you would like to help contribute to the valentine celebration we would happily accept any donations. The E2 students will have a full list of needs to me by the end of next week and I will communicate their wishes after that. I will also work to ensure our K/1 and E1 classrooms have some fun snack and activity options to celebrate their friendships and connections as well. Thank you for your support of our students and staff.
