Our Authorizer, Osprey Wilds, will visit on Wednesday, November 9th. They will be here all day interviewing staff, students, and observing how TRM runs on a typical day. Our authorizer is an important part of our daily lives at TRM, they ensure we are compliant with all state and federal mandates and that we are operating under public charter school law. Happy November Three Rivers Montessori families!

We have successfully navigated Fall Spirit Week and it was so much fun! Each daily theme held an opportunity to integrate our learning into new areas. The students were creative and collaborative in their daily interactions around our themes and it was so much fun to see them express themselves in their own unique ways. I want to say a big thank you to all of the families for helping to make our character day and parade such a success. If you joined us for the event, helped get your child in costume, or even provided a costume idea for your child, your involvement made it such a fun day for everyone. We will continue to look for creative ways to host events that allow families to join us at TRM to celebrate the learning and excitement we have here each day.

A reminder that on Monday, November 14th, we will not have school. The staff will all be gathering to engage in their own professional learning and to continue to plan for innovative methods of Montessori instruction for each of your children. It is incredibly important to allow space for our teachers and support staff to learn and grow from each other and the experts we bring in for these days. Our time on Monday the 14th will be focused on ensuring our Environmental Learning Plan is aligned with our school mission and vision and looking at ways to further embed authentic Montessori programming into all we do here at TRM. We hope you enjoy the extra time with your children.

Finally I want to leave you with another reflection I gleaned from this week. I have spent a good deal of time subbing in classrooms and covering support roles throughout the building. This has afforded me the opportunity to experience the Montessori environment from a holistic lens. The sense of community and belonging we have here at TRM is like nothing I have experienced before. Students are ready and willing to help each other and I have even seen them sacrifice their own time to ensure their peers have what they need to be successful. They root for each other in times of celebration and support each other in times of need. I fully believe that the vision of TRM will bring each and every one of your children success outside of these walls and I am honored to join your children on their journey of self discovery and learning each day.

My best,
