

SA Jr. High E-Day (Snow Day) Assignments

Language Arts - 6th, 7th, 8th:

Happy Snow Day. Please look through these creative writing questions. You are responsible for one. Your responses must be thorough and creative to receive full credit. This assignment is due the day we return to school, BEFORE class begins. It can be sent electronically through your Gmail or handwritten.

1. Imagine that you will set up a hot beverage station at your house since it's a snow day. Describe what kinds of drinks and other goodies you'll serve. Be descriptive in your writing, make me and other customers want to come to your hot beverage station.
2. Using all five senses, describe snow. (eyesight, hearing, taste, touch and smell)
3. Write a friendly letter convincing your parents to take you skiing/snowboarding next weekend. (remember the 5 parts to a friendly letter; heading, greeting, body, closing and signature).
4. What are the differences and similarities between clothes for the snow and clothes for the beach? Create a T-shirt and explain.
5. Would you rather go sledding, ice fishing, or skiing? Explain your answer.
6. Write a poem about a snow day.
7. Describe what your city looks and feels like on a winter day.
8. If I were the teacher for the day, I would...
9. Share five opinions and five facts about snowflakes.
10. Describe the perfect snow day.
11. Share a memorable snow day experience.
12. Write your opinion about whether or not you like snow days. Include reasons why you do or do not like snow days to support your ideas.

Math - Br. Edward

Complete the written practice for the math lesson that was scheduled for today. PLEASE DO ONE PROBLEM FROM EACH SECTION (each section has separate bold instructions in the practice book). SHOW ALL WORK! See Gradelink for current lessons.

Social Studies/History/Science - Mrs. Jones

ALL 6th, 7th and 8th grade students: Go to the current chapter that we are studying in Discovery Education. Choose any video between 10-20 minutes in length that pertains to our current topic of study. After watching the video create a 10 bullet point summary AND a 5 question peer test (multiple choice, true/false or fill in the blanks). Please include the answers to your quiz and the name of the video that you chose. Thank you! Happy snow day kiddos! :) Mrs. Jones
