Seeking Guidance

What do you want to be when you grow up? This is a really big question that kids are often asked. It's a perfect one to seek guidance from God. The answer may develop as you grow, but you can trust God to help you figure it out. At various times when I was younger I wanted to be an archaeologist, an auto mechanic, and a teacher. I didn't ever do any of those things, but I believe God guided me as I went.
