COUNSELING

Behavioral health information

Certain behavioral health information may be disclosed for treatment, payment, and health care operations as permitted or required by law. Otherwise Beautifully Unbroken Counseling, LLC will only disclose such information pursuant to an authorization, court order, or as otherwise required by law. For example, all communications between you and a psychologist, psychiatrist, social worker, and certain therapists and counselors will be privileged and confidential in accordance with State and Federal law.

Substance abuse treatment information

If you are treated in a specialized substance abuse program, the confidentiality of alcohol and drug abuse related patient records is protected by Federal law and regulations. Generally, Beautifully Unbroken Counseling, LLC may not say to a person outside the practice that you are in treatment, or disclose any information identifying you as an individual being treated for drug and alcohol abuse unless you:

1. You consent in writing
2. This disclosure is allowed by a court order
3. This disclosure is made to medical personnel in a medical emergency or to qualified personnel for research or audit.

Violation of these Federal laws and regulations by Beautifully Unbroken Counseling, LLC is a crime. Suspected violations may be reported to appropriate authorities in accordance with Federal regulation. * Federal laws do not protect any information about a crime committed by a client at a substance abuse program, or against any person who works for the program, or about any threat to commit such a crime. Federal laws and regulations do not protect any information about suspected child abuse or neglect from being reported under State law to appropriate State or local authorities.

HIV-related information

Beautifully Unbroken Counseling LLC may disclose HIV-related information as permitted or required by State law.
