PASTOR

"Lord, I want to be a Christian in-a my heart, in-a my heart. Lord, I want to be a Christian in-a my heart, in-a my heart." The first time I heard the words and music to this haunting African-American spiritual, I was in first grade, and I distinctly remember noticing how much my Sunday school teachers loved it and were comforted by it. We would read the hymn lyrics from a giant flip chart in the front of our Worship Center and because we were little, we only sang the first verse. I also remember wondering why we sang "in-a my" heart instead of plain old "in my" heart. By the time I was in junior high school this old chestnut of a hymn was replaced by the oh so trendy and cool, "They'll Know We are Christians by Our Love." And my know-it-all eight-grade confident self-thought that "Lord, I want to be a Christian" was totally "jive." Of course, my friends and I considered all music to be jive unless it was recorded by the Beatles, Simon and Garfunkel, Aretha Franklin, and/or Diana Ross and the Supremes. I thought, "Just be a Christian already! Don't want to be one." My Dad could no more make me believe that wanting to be a Christian was a life-long process any more than he could make me believe that when he was my age "jive" meant "cool." Because in my eyes, my Dad was jive.

"Lord, I want to be more loving in-a my heart, in-a my heart." Flash forward about fifty years later and I cannot tell you how happy I was to find both hymns in our Webster Church Hymnal. Whoever you are, if you were on the Committee to select our current Hymnal, you did an outstanding job. I'm not sure if you've noticed, but so far, I've never had to search for a hymn from another hymnal to meet our worship needs. What I'm usually looking for in a hymn: the old and the new; the borrowed and the blue, is always right there in Worship and Rejoice. "Lord, I want to be more holy in-a my heart, in-a my heart." The Book of Leviticus is also called "The Holiness Code." The people of God wanted to be Holy because God is Holy. But it's a life-long process. Almost every day we start the process over. This now brings me to the season of Lent, and the daily process of wanting to be a Christian. The season of Lent is the forty days, excluding Sundays, between Ash Wednesday and Easter Sunday, when Christians follow Jesus to the cross and prepare for Easter, often through fasting and penitence. And although we don't offer a traditional Ash Wednesday Service here at Webster Church, Ash Wednesday might be the perfect time to visit one of our church neighbors in Historic Havre de Grace. Many of us may also decide to revisit our New Year's resolution we somehow broke during these past seven weeks of Epiphany. Lent is the perfect time to retry that New Year's resolution because it's only for forty days and you can break it on Sundays. So, if you've decided to eat healthier foods, or to exercise again, or pray more often, or worship more regularly, just remember hymn number 457, "Lord, I want to be like Jesus in-a my heart, in-a my heart." But whatever you decide to give up for Lent, don't let it make you so grumpy that you cannot confidently sing hymn number 595, "They'll Know We are Christians by Our Love."

MODERATOR

On February 2, 2019, almost one year since his arrival at Webster Church the Reverend Jim Sterner was occasionally installed as our Pastor. It was a glorious and happy event especially since Rev. Ellen Witko delivered the homily and Reverend Freeman Palmer, our new Conference Minister, were able to join us. The music, the menages and the reception all seemed to praise the special day. Jim has brought vitality and a modern-day ménage to use while making the Bible live-large for both adults and children.

Sorry if you missed Soup and Games night because the soups were warming, the children were competing in their games and the adults enjoyed each other's company and a glass of wine. Such a great way to socialize during the cold winter months.

We now begin the planning for events that lead to the Cross and Resurrection-Lent and Easter hold special meaning to our body of Christians. Our Diaconate is busy, with Pastor Jim, putting together our worshipping and celebrating services. You will soon receive a calendar-of-events.

Good news! The electric chair lift has been repaired and all parts are wholly operational. Please review the operating instructions posted at both the top and bottom of the staircase. You will need to know how to properly and safely operate the lift, even if you have already used the chair.

God's natural beauty is present in all the seasons, but we eagerly await Spring!

Blessings in a Backpack – Support a Child

The 2018-2019 school year continues. Webster Congregational Christian Church continues to pack backpacks of nonperishable food to deliver to students at Havre de Grace Elementary School each week for 75 students. Two rotating menus were created with each child receiving 6 of the following items each week: pop tart, applesauce, fruit cup, pudding cup, Ravioli, macaroni 'n' cheese, for weekend consumption. Over longer weekends and long vacations as Easter break, additional items are included. The children are very grateful for these items as for some, this may be the only food they have for the weekend. Through the National Headquarters of Blessings in a Backpack, Wester Church has a special account at Sysco, Walmart and Wegmans which is used to purchase the items for the backpacks. Doris and Gary Lyttle shop for the food and Heidi Pensell, Jocelyn Greimel, or Gary and Doris Lyttle deliver the backpacks to the school. $100 will supply food for a year per child. If you would like to contribute to the Blessings in a Backpack Webster Church fund, send your contribution to

SCCW

Spring officially arrives in about 3 weeks and some flowers are already peeking above the ground. The SCCW officers were nominated, and they were installed at the February meeting by Rev. James Sterner. The officers include: President - Doris Lyttle, Vice President of Devotions - Judith Haverstick, Vice President of Programs - Ann Helton, Treasurer - Lois Dooley, Secretary - Jean Cook, Hospitality/Flower Chairperson - Vilma Duffy, and Official Board Rep - Carol Greimel.

During the month of March, the SCCW hands out the March Calendar of Blessings which helps to raise the money we give to our benevolences and the church fund. Find a jar and designate it as my March Calendar Change. Each day in March read the little direction, do the math, and put the corresponding change in the jar. It is more fun to do it daily, but if your schedule is such that you are unable to add this to your busy day, then any donation will be greatly received. No need to count your change. We can do that for you. Just turn in your donation or check made out to SCCW at the end of the month to Lois Dooley. Thank you for your participation. Calendars will be available in the church narthex.

The March meeting is on Monday, March 18th at 1:30 p.m. at Webster Church. All ladies are welcome.

Doris Lyttle
