

A Student's Guide to

Playing Chess online

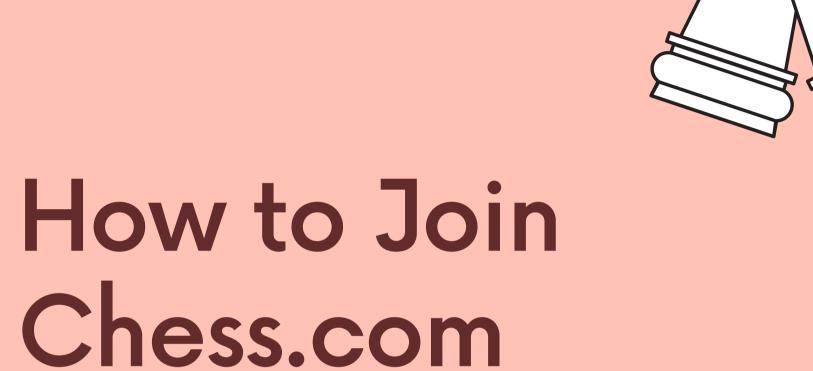

Set up your study space.

Find an area in your house where you can sit comfortably and focus.

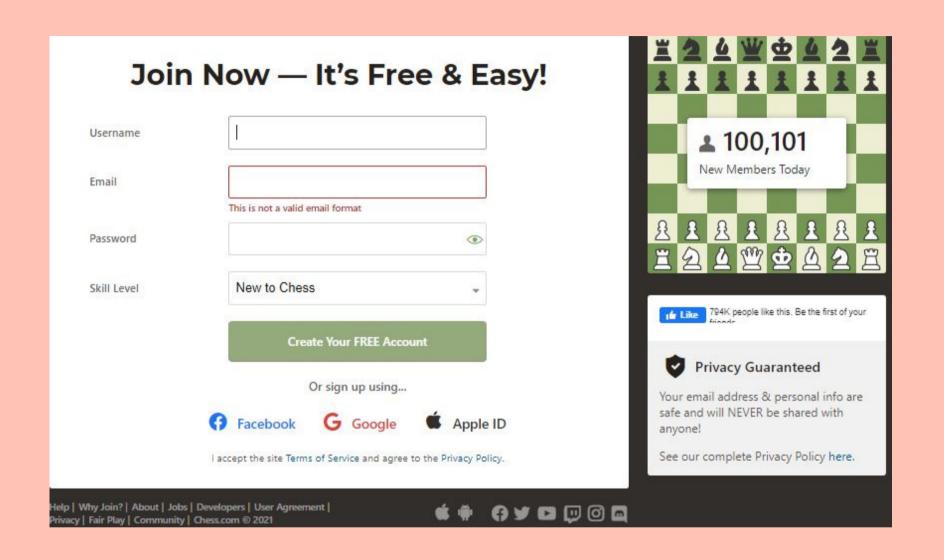

Make it separate to your relaxation space. Ideally away from a TV screen or other distractions.

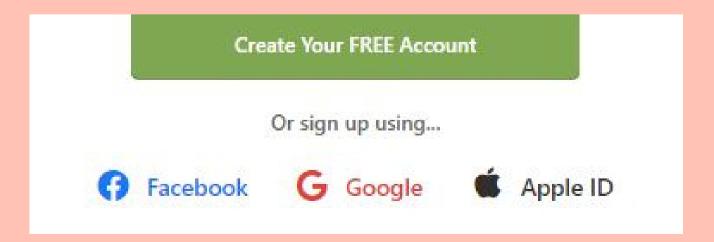

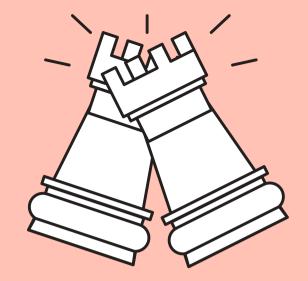

Go to chess.com/register and fill out the sign up form or even easier complete the form by clicking on the red google button underneath and using your email address.

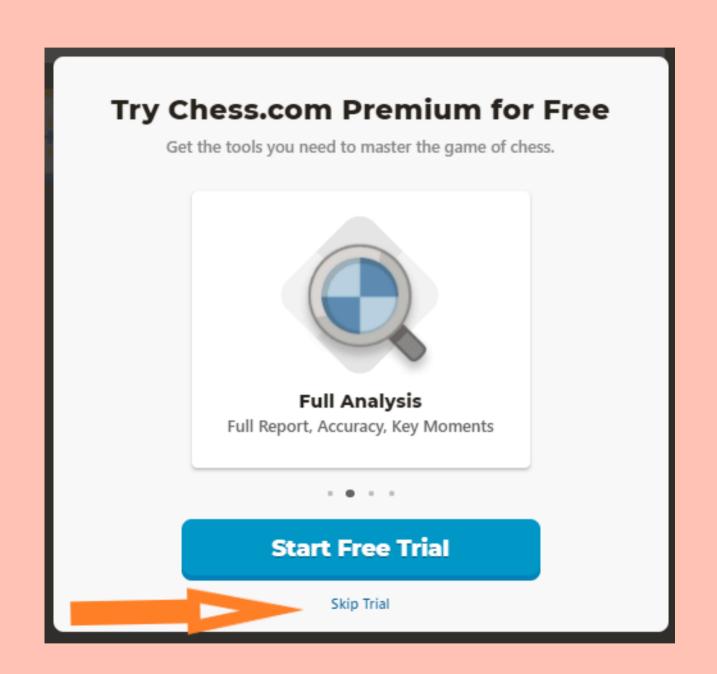

Select "Skip Trial" for free version.

How to Join Chess Quarter's Club

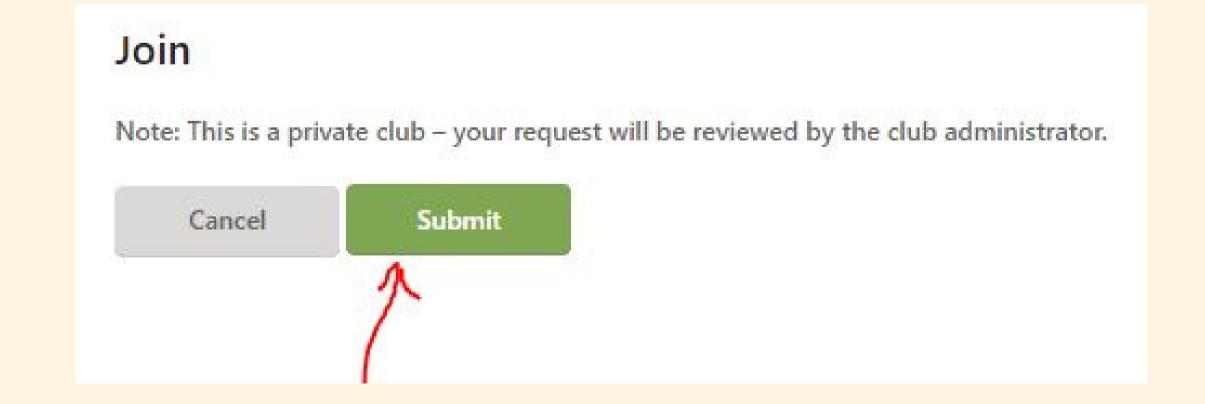

Click this link:

https://www.chess.com/club/chess-quarter.

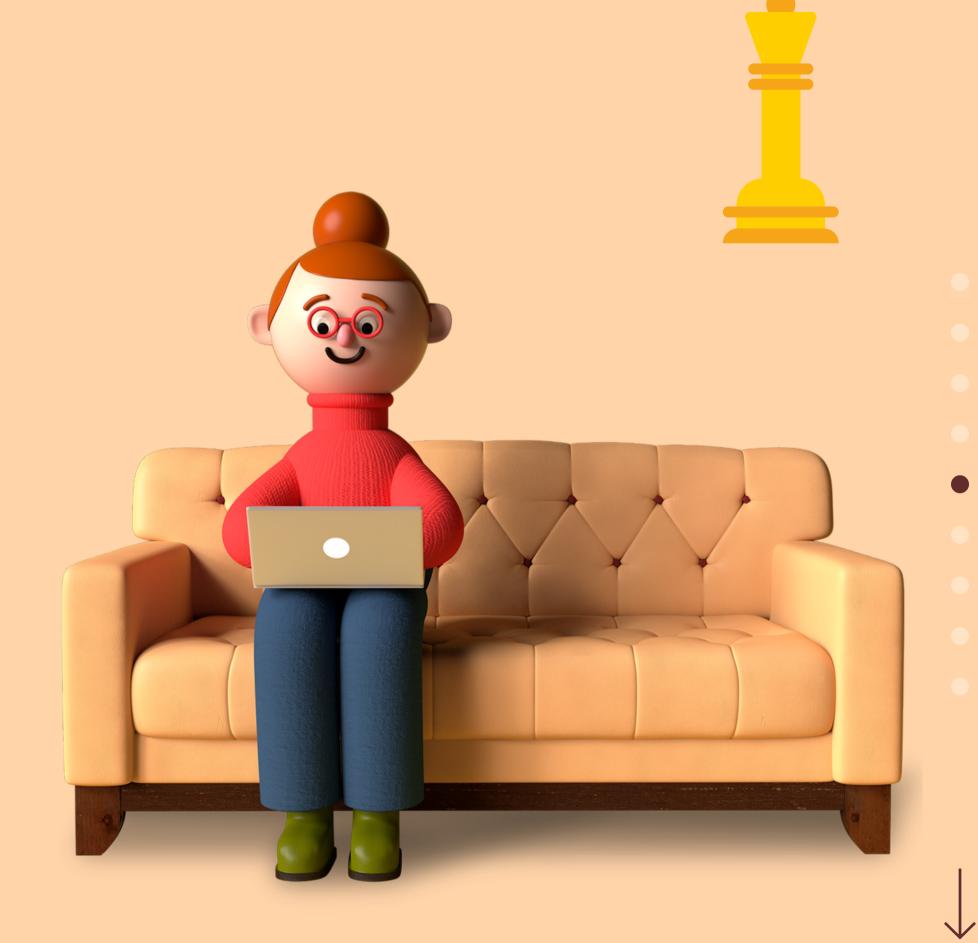

Click "Join" and then click "Submit".

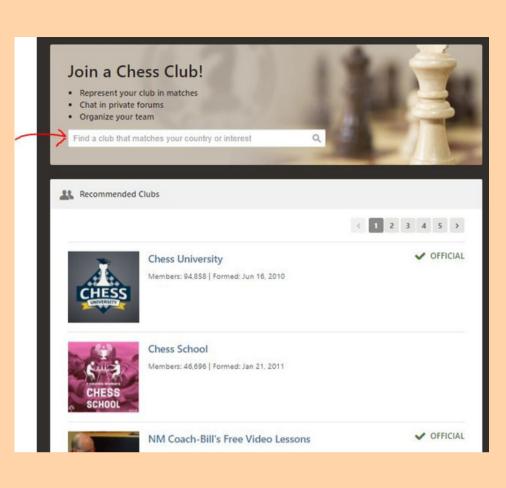

Another way to join the Chess Quarter Club

From the chess.com homepage, go to left side menu and hover your pointer over "Connect" (do not click on "connect"). When the selection menu appears, select "Clubs".

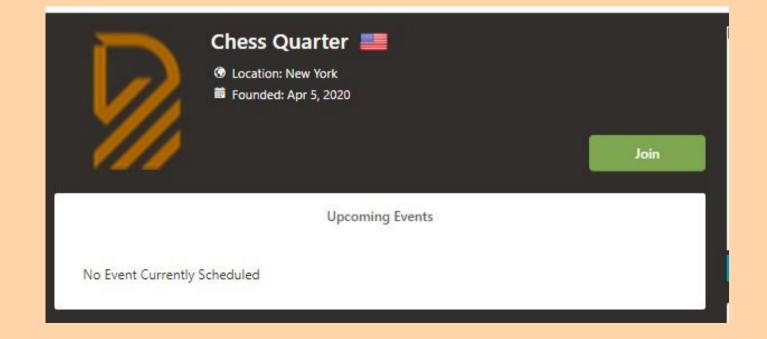

In the search box type "Chess Quarter"

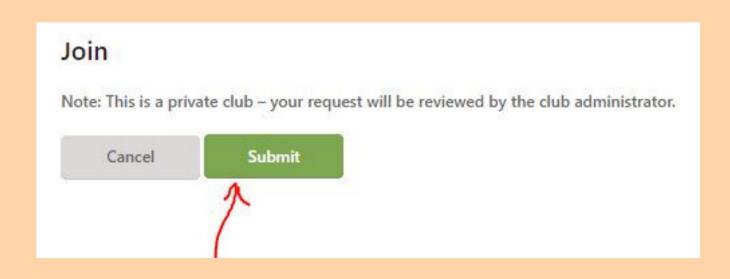

Click on the word "Chess Quarter" and then click "Join" and then click "Submit"

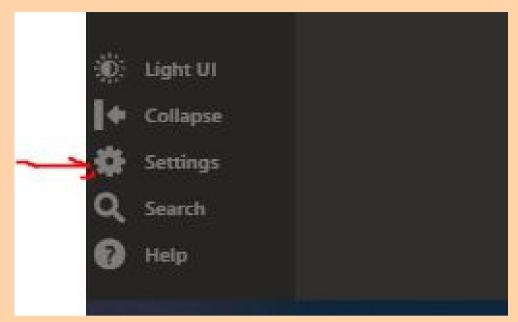

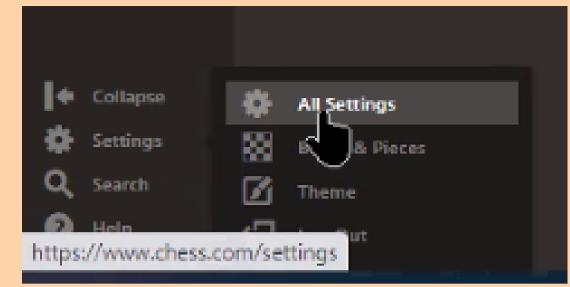

How to change privacy settings in Chess.com

- Click on "Settings" in the bottom left corner of the webpage.
- Click on "Privacy" and change the settings as you see fit. I recommend that you turn safe mode on at the bottom.

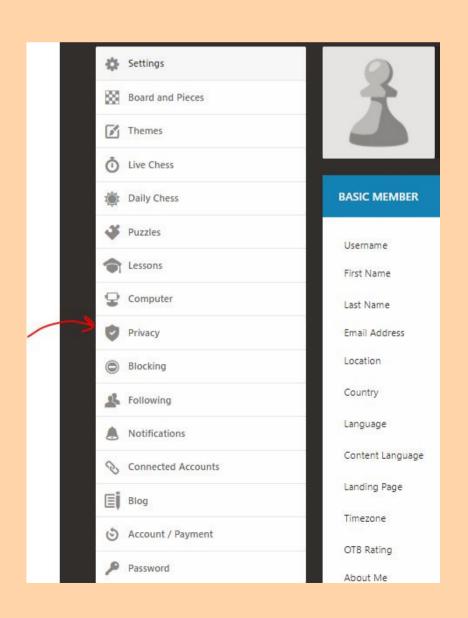

Click on "Settings" in the bottom left corner of the webpage.

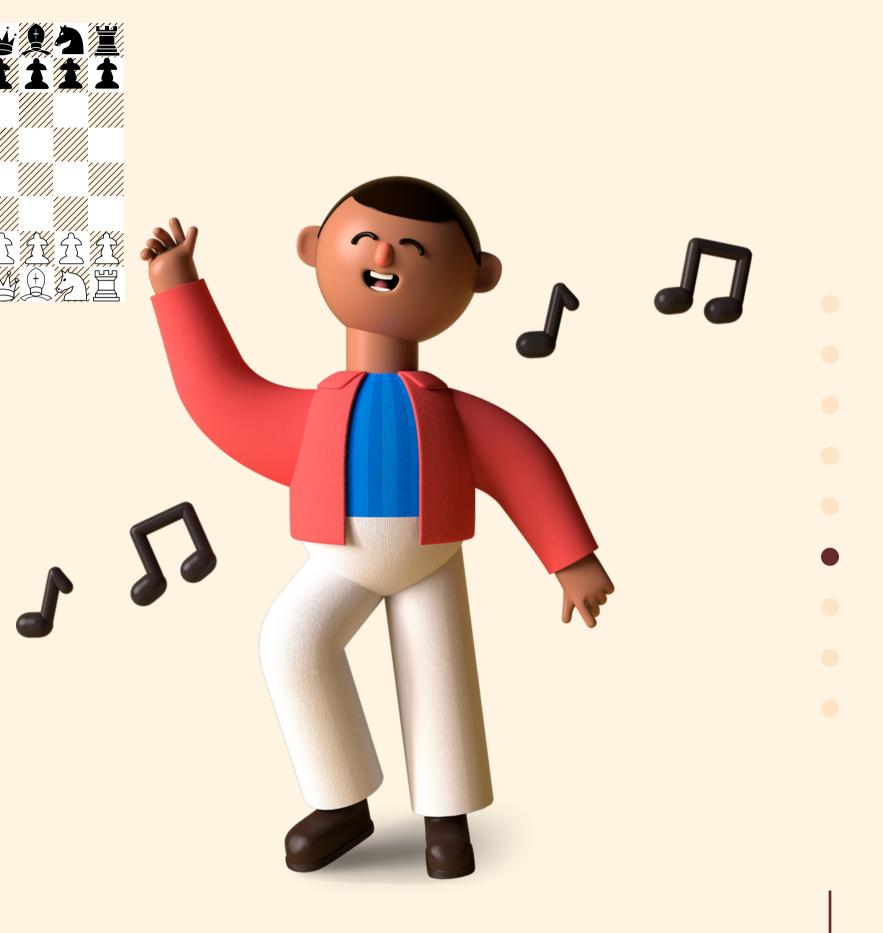

Click on "Privacy" and change the settings as you see fit. I recommend that you turn safe mode on at the bottom.

How to join a Chess Quarter tournament on Chess.com

Put your mouse pointer over "Play" (hand holding the pawn) and then select "live chess" to the left of the "Play" button. On the right, there is a tournament tab. Click on it and look for the Chess Quarter knight.

Speak up and ask for help.

When things get tough, don't just push it. Ask your parents, reach out to your teacher, or seek the help of your classmates.

Support will always be available as long as we ask for it.

Learning from home can be difficult, but it's definitely achievable.

Remote learning helps reinforce lifelong skills, such as time and energy management, independence, and creative thinking.

