SOWTH

A Regional Small Farms, Big Community Conference

HOSTED BY  GEORGIA ORGANICS

A community of regenerative farmers and food system advocates is uniting.
Will you join the call?

Join us for SOWTH, a regional convening of farm and food advocates from 13 Southern states, the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, and beyond.

This event offers a unique opportunity for learning, building partnerships, sharing resources, and strengthening our collective vision and action for a strong sustainable agricultural and local food movement across the South.
