

Ha7ahatsii7ahati, Sidatwaawa7 Kumbakiih.

Good morning, how are you all, my name is Eric T Guy of El reno, Oklahoma. I am running for the Hearing Board in the upcoming 2021 Tribal Council Elections for Caddo Nation of Oklahoma.

First and foremost my family and I share the love for our caddo people and culture and ceremonial. My parents are Farley and Arnita Pewewardy, maternal late grandparents Ralph and Juanita Keyes out of respect for my father raising me, my paternal late grandparents Samuel "Doc" and Mary Lee Pewewardy.

My paternal biological Grandparents Ross and Ruby Guy, my late maternal great grandparents is Thomas and Nettie (Parton) Keyes were original allottees.

Eric graduated from Fairfax high school, Fairfax, Oklahoma. After graduation he has attended Haskell Indian Jr College and Cameron University and studied in Liberal arts. He had also attended Talking leaves Job Corp, Tahlequah, Oklahoma. He had received a certificate for carpentry, and also earned his CDL from American Trucking Driving School, Lawton, Oklahoma.

Eric has 25 years in the trucking industry as an Company driver and owner operator, and has sat on different safety and hearing boards as driver liaison. He had received numerous Safety Awards from 1998-2018 different companies from Driver of the year, and receiving an Award for being the only Native American (caddo) tribal member to accomplish 10 million safe miles from Independent Trucker Association Contractor Union. He has worked with FEMA from 1998 to 2011 as an Contractor and Driver liaison, and had received numerous awards.

Accountability is very important to me. As, I take on this challenge to be part of our tribal Hearing board, it will give me an opportunity to help us grow in the right direction for the betterment for the Caddo Nation.

To always put what is right and truthful first and to be supportive along with the candidates that running for this years elections.

I would very much appreciate your support by voting for me for Hearing Board. If voted in Hearing board, I will bring leadership, humility and unbiased services to the Caddo Nation Hearing board.

Ha'wiit,
Eric T Guy.
