

Hello Caddo Tribal members. My name is Verna Whitebead Castillo, candidate for Treasurer in this coming 2021 Caddo election. I know the new Caddo Tribal Council will have a long and hard road to start making our tribe strong and to bring our people back together. I believe the Caddo tribal members been waiting for this election so we need for you to come out an vote. I want to hear what our tribal members has to say on what they expect of the new council, I know tribal members has ideals and I would like to hear them. We need a change for the coming years and I believe a new council will make it happen.

My parents are the late Reuben and Rhoda Whitebead of Scott, OK and grandparents Frank Whitebead and Lydia Penn also Esther Coffey Smith and Reed Wilson. I have one son Michael some people might know him by Snoopy, two brothers Matthew and Pete.

I am presently employed with the Caddo Nation Division of Housing, in January it will be four years with housing. I retired in 2015 from the Bureau of Indian Affairs. Employed with CFR Court , Human Resources IIM accounts and 15 years with BIA Law Enforcement.
