We are open daily for congregate lunch at the Fritz Hendrix Memorial Building Monday – Thursday 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. and on Fridays, we serve brunch from 9:30 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. We encourage our Elders to come by and pick up a menu and/or check it out on our Caddo Nation AoA FB page.

Menu: Our menu items are selected by suggestions from our current participants at Congregate and our deliveries. Suggestions are taken throughout the month and the menu is ready by the last Monday prior to the 1st of the month. Each day is planned according to the food pyramid for elderly adults and liberalized diets for the general elder population. (Condiments are available and some are high in sodium and contain sugar.) We will be continuing with fresh foods to keep everyone nice and full for the remaining summer months.

Our meals are made “from scratch” and this takes a lot of time and preparation, but we believe the outcome is worth it; I applaud my staff for getting the meals out in a timely manner. The compliments I receive on the taste and appearance speak for themselves. We try new menu suggestions as well as toss in some good comfort foods.

Funding: Our program continues to operate off of grants awarded through ACL; our FY 2026 began today April 1, 2026. ACL grants are Title VI – Part A, Title VI – Part C, NSIP and MIPPA. The Gracemont Congregate is no longer available due to funding cuts from the State of Oklahoma.

AARP SCSEP: Caddo Nation of Oklahoma had partnered with AARP to become a host agency who will train low income or unemployed elders, 55 and older, new skills that will assist them with making their way back in to the work setting through a training program. We here at AoA will assist elders in filling out the application for SCSEP and they can work here at the Caddo Nation of Oklahoma, if there are any available positions. In the occurrence that there is not any available positions, we can assist with trying to find placemen in other host agencies in the area. Please apply if interested, they are part time positions at minimum wage

The Higher Education Program provides scholarships to qualifying tribal member college students. Scholarship amounts vary according to unmet need (as determined by the Federal Student Aid Program), and range between $500.00 and $3,000.00 per term. Scholarships are funded on a first come, first served basis for completed applications.

Number of applications:	120
Number of applications complete:	70
Number of students suspended:	2

The Caddo Nation Adult Education Program provides assistance to qualifying tribal members who are seeking short-term training (one year or less), literacy instruction, cultural enrichment, or basic skills. The amounts of assistance vary according to the costs associated with the type of training/courses that the applicant will be taking. The current maximum amount of funding for the training/course(s) is $4,500.00 per academic year (Aug. 01 through July 31). This amount is subject to change. Applications are funded on a first come, first served basis for completed applications. Currently, eligible tribal members must reside within the jurisdiction of the Anadarko Agency (Caddo, Kiowa, Comanche, Cotton, or Tillman Counties in the state of Oklahoma). This jurisdiction is subject to change in the future. Notification of any changes will be posted to the tribal website, facebook, and tribal newsletter. The number of applicants for the Adult Ed. Subject: Emergency Management Membership Report

Tribal Council

The Emergency Management staff spent most of their efforts during this quarter with severe weather monitoring and advising staff of potential threats. There were no reports of any impact upon local members, but did assist some members that received damage in the Oklahoma City area.

With FEMA once again operational, grants application periods were opened, the staff reviewed and researched those that would be an asset and assist to program. Began to research and read the Notice of Funding Opportunity booklet that comes with each which outlines application process and the items of eligibility. The Emergency Management chose to submit Building Resilience Infrastructure Community grant (BRIC), which includes projects for Community Saferoom facility, Outdoor warning devices at Gracemont and Hinton, upgrade to the Complex device, establish Building Code program for Self Governance. Generators for the Cultural facility and the new saferoom.

The Emergency Management also completed applications for the Assistance to Fire Grant, for more equipment for Fire program. Also submitted a Fire Prevention and Safety grant to begin outreach and public education program.

The Emergency Management has also assisted other department of the nation with their grant applications for compliance and submittal.

Emergency Management staff attended several training courses at the Intertribal Emergency Management Coalition conference in Tulsa. Attended Fire workshop in Albuquerque NM for Self Governance.

Preparing for upcoming events of the CHR program, Child Care program and the Native American Expo with deployment of the Zumro tent assembly.

The Emergency Management staff stands ready to always assist our tribal members in any way possible. May the Creator richly bless each of you.

Environmental Protection

P.O. Box 487 Binger, OK 73009 | Phone: 405-656-2344

Since its establishment, the Caddo Nation Environmental Protection (CNEP) program has secured several grants through the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), including the General Assistance Program (GAP), Clean Water Act Section 106 (CWA), and Clean Air Act Section 103 (CAA). Additionally, CNEP has received funding from the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) to support climate resiliency initiatives, natural resource education, and invasive species management within the Caddo Nation's jurisdiction. These funds enable CNEP to take proactive steps toward protecting our Tribal lands against the growing impacts of climate change. In the coming quarters, CNEP plans to apply for additional grants through both the EPA and BIA to expand its programs and enhance services for the Caddo Nation.

During the second quarter of the year, the Caddo Nation EPA program has been in talks about the next steps for the roll-off program. After providing roll-offs for the past year, the EPA Regional Officer has contacted the Caddo Nation Environmental program to provide a one-time supplemental funding to purchase a new truck and trailer for our roll-offs. This will allow our team to conduct more clean-ups on our land.

The Caddo Nation Environmental Department is working towards completing and using our 40,000-gallon rainwater catchment system. This will allow our firetrucks or any local authorities to fill up tankers in a hurry in case of wildfire or any other need. The tank is set to be Usable Summer 26. This tank is located at the Caddo Nation and is one of, if not the biggest, rainwater catchment systems that any tribe in Oklahoma has, making it one of a kind.

The Caddo Nation Environmental Department has been working with teams at the University of Oklahoma to test orphaned/abandoned wells that the Caddo Nation has a vested interest in. Our goal in this is to test these wells for methane leaks and/or other carbon-emitting gases and calculate how much has been released based on the supposed capping date or based on inactivity.

Our role in this is to be the boots on the ground and provide local knowledge to the teams at OU for smoother operation and testing of the wells. We also reached out to the individual owners/tenants in preparation for these visits to receive permission to enter the land. The current goal of these tasks is to document what wells are emitting, log that into a database, and after which we can prioritize high vs. low priority wells and address those through remediation efforts. Members of the environmental team have escorted teams from OU on several occasions, providing local guidance for the teams. The teams are separated into two distinct testing groups; one is a preliminary testing style which samples the ambient air around a well head. The second is a more in-depth test that shows the methane release from the soil and through isotope testing, can differentiate the methane that is released from microbial activity within the soil and a slightly different kind of methane that may indicate a below ground leak from a pipe.

During the third quarter (April - June 2026), the Caddo Nation Environmental Protection Program (CNEP) provided Roll-Off Dumpster Services to seven tribal members. This service assists community members with the proper disposal of large volumes of waste, helping to maintain cleaner homes and properties across the Caddo Nation jurisdiction. Deliveries for the fourth quarter will begin next week.

The Caddo Nation Environmental Program is looking into Multiple new funding opportunities, including possibly a new Water Tower for the Caddo Nation Complex. This will allow us to have our own water system.

To ensure equitable access to this limited-capacity service, the following policy is in place:

“If you have received service within the same EPA calendar year (October – September), you will be placed on a waitlist until the next funding period.”

This approach allows more Tribal members the opportunity to benefit from the program. Roll-off services are offered on a first-come, first-served basis, with availability three times per quarter. Service is scheduled according to the following calendar:

- 1st Quarter: October – December
- 2nd Quarter: January – March
- 3rd Quarter: April – June
- 4th Quarter: July – September

CNEP also offers in-home mold inspection services to Tribal members. All CNEP staff are certified mold inspectors and provide the following:

- On-site inspections and environmental assessments
- Air or surface mold sampling (as needed)
- Education on mold prevention and safe remediation practices

Our services are aimed at promoting healthier indoor/outdoor environments by identifying and addressing potential hazardous and mold-related health risks. For further information on any services provided or information on the CNEP programs, please contact us.

A Year of Caddo Language in Review:

There was a 150% increase in online class members who reported that they were using Caddo language outside of class from the month of April to the month of June.

The Caddo Cooking and Gardening module ran from April 1st, 2026 to June 10, 2026. There were 11 classes. The average number of attendees for this module was 10.8 people per class. There are 12 hours and 55 minutes of recorded Caddo language classes that incorporate structured immersion and connections to Caddo culture, history, stories, songs, spirituality (prayer), and lived experiences of tribal members. The preservation focus group classes brought in guest speakers who shared on the topics of decolonizing gardening, Caddo regalia, Caddo cooking: then and now, and Caddo art.

On June 17th we began a new module that's surrounding the theme of Caddo Songs and Dances. It is ongoing.

Caddo Nation tribal member Kira Poole provided Caddo Educational Workbooks for children that are available for free in .PDF version in the Caddo language program's archive. There are a limited amount of printed copies available through Caddo Nation Child Care.

Cross-departmental Activities

The language program has continued to integrate with other Caddo Nation programs through events and projects:

- Caddo Nation Child Care – The Caddo Nation Child Care did a youth summer camp from June 2nd to 26th, where there were daily Caddo language games or activities co-designed with youth cultural educator, River Whittle. Tahlate provided language content from the Cooking and Gardening module to support the community garden program and April planting day events that were run through Caddo Nation Child Care department.

Help Preserve Caddo Heritage

There is an open call for all Caddo people interested in depositing old audio recordings and videos of Caddo language, history, stories, and culture for the Caddo Nation language program's digital archive. Digital backup of the old or new resources will be stored securely in the language program archive. The depositors get to keep their original tapes and control who gets access to their digital files. Tahlate is available to travel to record elders. Contact the language program with the information below.
