It's Christmas Outreach Time!

The toys, blankets, and food outreach at Christmas time and into the new year are a tradition that goes back for decades and continues on with planning for this year's outreaches to the many mountain villages and the Otomis indigenous community. I wanted to share some of the incredible things that go into this outreach so you can fully appreciate the cost, effort, and results that this outreach has had over the years.

Extensions of Jesus covers all of the cost of the gifts for the children, the blankets for the villagers, and for all of the food. For many years, gifts for the children were flown in by another ministry from the United States. Gradually demand by different organizations in Mexico became more than what was available. Over the last few years, Extensions of Jesus, with the help of the Oasis of Love church congregation, have supplied all of the children's gifts, all of the food given out, and all of the blankets given to those that really need and appreciate them. If it seems like this is huge; it is! Sammy and Martha's personal vehicles have lived and died in the process of transporting goods up narrow dirt roads.

To avoid overloading personal vehicles and damaging them for Christmas outreaches; the last few years gifts and food have been hauled up into the mountains in trucks and vans that were leased for the occasion. You've seen them pictured on Facebook and in the newsletters loaded with food, toys, and church volunteers. With the last newsletter, you saw the van made in Mexico that the ministry would like to invest in instead of paying the fees for a different van and truck for each mountain church outreach. This is still a major prayer request that has amazing potential for the ministry and for the church activities. In addition, other items that are needed urgently for this coming year will be shown on the next page.

Sammy and Martha celebrated 21 years as pastors of Oasis of Love Church in San Luis Potosi recently. Over this span of time an extensive group of volunteers have been raised up to assist in the work of the ministry. Sammy and Martha are free to travel due to workers in the ministry that have been trained and called by God to minister in their absence. The pictures that you see of the outreaches to mountain villages, the Otomis community and church, and the assistance given to the school for the deaf in the Otomis community; all are demonstrations of the tiny army of hard-working volunteers and ministers that have been birthed through this ministry. This is an awesome testimony of the work being done in San Luis Potosi at Oasis of Love Church.

As God's children, we know that we have eternal life; but our time on this earth is temporary. Some of our ministry partners have retired from the ministry; some have moved on to their heavenly reward. Some churches have changed in their ministry focus and direction with a new pastor at the helm.

While we thank God for all the faithful partners that have poured int o this ministry for decades; we thank God for those partners that He is bringing in for such a time as this. For each of us as individuals and ministers; now is the time to keep the focus of the great commission: going into all the world to preach the gospel to every creature. For those that go and for those that send; we all have a reward in heaven.

Pictures aren't available of the Christmas outreaches until after the first of the year; I'm including some of the recent outreaches and a reminder that there is a long history of Extensions of Jesus walking through open doors to minister in all kinds of places: The city dump, the hospital to children and the chemo room, on the streets, in the mountain villages, at women's meetings, at motorcycle rallies, home bible studies, marriage seminars, the Otomis school for the deaf, children's crusades and vacation bible school. These are just some of the outreaches; and they pastor Oasis of Love full time.
