The puppy is sold to the purchaser on the following conditions:

The breeder has followed the breed's National Club Guidelines and used the Kennel Club health schemes and certification to ensure that the sire and dam are sound breeding stock. The puppies have been reared in a home environment and have been wormed at four weeks, six weeks and eight weeks. The puppy is believed to be in good health. The puppy has received first round of distemper/parvo/parainfluenza/adenovirus. The buyer is responsible for subsequent serial vaccines at 9, 12, and 15 weeks of age. This series is to include a rabies vaccine.

The purchaser is strongly advised to have the puppy vet checked within three days of collecting the puppy. If the vet certifies that there is any problem which makes the puppy unfit for sale, provided the puppy is returned in the same condition as when it was sold, and within seven days, the breeder will take the puppy back and refund the full purchase price. This includes genetic defect identified within the first two years of the puppy's life. The breeder is not liable for illness due to environmental factors that are not present at the time the buyer takes possession of the puppy, ie: internal or external parasites, diarrhea or vomiting caused by dietary change or consumption of foreign objects, car/motion sickness, viruses or bacterial infections not acquired on breeder's property. The breeder will not be held responsible for eye color or coat texture as these characteristics are subject to change as the puppy grows older. The breeder will not pay expenses incurred in the return of a puppy nor accept any claim for distress caused by the return.

The breeder has enquired of the purchaser his or her past experience with dogs and in particular with the Australian Shepherd breed, and, on the basis of the information received, is willing to place a puppy with the purchaser. The breeder has pointed out to the purchaser the main conditions the breed is prone to and the health schemes followed to reduce the risk of such conditions. Every puppy is an individual and the breeder cannot be held responsible should conditions, genetic or otherwise, develop later in life.

The purchaser agrees that the dog will be kept in appropriate conditions for its welfare and health. It will be fed on a suitable diet for its age and condition and have appropriate exercise. It will receive all necessary veterinary care to maintain its physical good health. The dog will be kept under appropriate control and will not be neglected or maltreated in any way. The purchaser attests that he or she has not been banned from keeping a dog or any other animal by any legal court order.

If circumstances occur where it becomes necessary to re-home the dog, the breeder must first be notified and given an opportunity to take back the dog either by purchase (in the case of selling on) or to home it if it is in need of rescue.

This puppy is being sold with limited registration for pet/companion/agility purposes only unless otherwise agreed upon between breeder and purchaser.

Deposits received to reserve a puppy are non-refundable. If a buyer decides to renege on the purchase after deposit is paid, breeder may refund deposit, at her discretion, if the puppy is sold to another buyer.

Puppy must be picked up and balance due paid within 7 days of agreed upon date, otherwise, puppy may be relisted for sale and deposit will be forfeited. If puppy must stay with breeder for a time period greater than 7 days, there will be a boarding fee of $20/day.
