Twelve Characteristics of a Genuine Christian by, Ron Snider

1. Genuine Christians know that to enjoy the fullness of God's salvation, they must embrace both God's searing holiness and God's forgiving love.
2. Genuine Christians live like Jesus rather than the world because they know him.
3. Genuine Christians strive to make the church a little picture of what heaven will be like.
4. Genuine Christians love the whole person the way Jesus did.
5. Genuine Christians have learned that faithful discipleship is possible only in the power of the Spirit nurtured by daily spiritual renewal.
6. Genuine Christians keep their marriage covenants and place children before career because they treasure Christian family as God's second-best gift to the world.
7. Genuine Christians have discovered that biblical balance works better than secular substitutes or lopsided half-truths.
8. Genuine Christians apply the biblical truth that faith, without a strong concern for the poor, is heretical; with it, it can change the world.
9. Genuine Christians confess that Jesus is Lord of politics and economics just as surely as he is Lord of church and family.
10. Genuine Christians love the creation because they worship the Creator.
11. Genuine Christians mourn the divisions in the church and gladly embrace all who confess and worship Jesus as God and Savior according to the scriptures.
12. Genuine Christians embrace servanthood because they adore the Servant-King.
