SPEAK UP FOR ME IN COURT.

EVERY CHILD HAS A CHANCE—IT'S YOU.®

A Court Appointed Special Advocate, or CASA volunteer, may be appointed by a judge to advocate for a child when they enter the child welfare system due to allegations of abuse or neglect.

WHAT DO CASA VOLUNTEERS DO?

CASA volunteers advocate for the best interest of a child and make informed recommendations for the child's physical and emotional well-being to the judge.

CASA volunteers get to know the child, parents and their family in order to provide valuable information to the judge and others involved in the case to help ensure the child's best interest is being met.

CASA VOLUNTEERS:

- Have the desire, patience and heart to work with children and families
- Commit 10-15 hours per month of your time for the duration of each case
- Participate in an in-depth training program
- Go through a criminal and CPS background check
- Are at least 21 years old

READY TO SPEAK UP FOR A CHILD?

The City of San Benito warmly welcomes you.

Known as "The Resaca City" because of the picturesque 400-foot wide waterway that runs through it, San Benito (population 24,385) is a unique, fast-growing, culturally significant destination that reflects the best of South Texas.

Nestled near the center of the lower Rio Grande Valley not far from the Rio Grande, San Benito is located in Cameron County, which is one of the fastest growing areas of the country. Both climate and geographic location are factors in the city's success.

The city's economy is positively impacted by its proximity to the Mexican border, and the Free Trade International Bridge at Los Indios, which the city partially owns, is one of the most modern ports of entry into the United States.

In addition, the city is a cultural heritage community, serving as the home of Conjunto (accordion-style, Latin-based) music, and legends Freddie Fender and Narciso Martinez (the father of Conjunto music).

What's more, the City of San Benito remains poised for further growth in commerce, tourism and trade.

Come see the City of San Benito for yourself and experience all that this municipal jewel has to offer!

The Sportsman

QUALITY BOATS & SERVICE SINCE 1951

Shallow Sport
Home of the Legendary Shallow Sport

Renowned for our attention to detail, at The Sportsman our boats are custom rigged to please the most avid of sports fishermen. Each model is water tested and fine-tuned. We set our own standards on weight to horsepower, tweaking the props, adjusting transom angles, making sure each engine is mounted at the right height on the vertical lifts, and then doublechecking again for proper hull weight distribution. Why so much attention to detail? To give you the best hole shot possible. Because after all, "no one knows shallow water boats better... no one!"

The Callandret Black Museum

The Callandret Black Museum located on 305 Doherty St, is the first museum of its kind in the Rio Grande Valley.

It all started when Joe Callandret, an entrepreneur, passed away in 1931. His wife, Fannie, decided to donate some of her husband's land to San Benito Consolidated Independent School District in 1948. The land was used for colored children to go to school. The San Benito Historical Society along with San Benito CISD helped make the Callandret Black History Museum possible.
