Commodore's September Comments

Hello Fellow PYC Members,

Our PYC Nominating Committee was approved by the Board of Directors at its August 27th meeting. The three members of the committee are: Jim Clarke, John Kindinger, and Kay Weaver. The Committee has chosen Jim Clarke as its chair person. If you are interested in any of the officer or board member positions, or if you would like to suggest someone, please contact members of the Committee. Nominations will be completed by October 12th and the elections will be held on November 9th. Please review Articles 5, 6, and 7 of the PYC By-Laws for more information.

The PYC Board also approved adding the PYC By-Laws and Policies and Procedures manual to our PYC website as a public document for everyone to access. Thanks to Webmaster Bettie Nebergall for implementing these changes.

Terry and Kay Weaver organized and hosted a wonderful, four-day outing on the St. Johns River, August 22nd to 25th. Thirty people and six boats attended, and everyone had an enjoyable time. It was a fun-filled event and a perfect boat outing among friends. Thanks very much to Kay and Terry for their excellent work in planning this event. Please see Kay's more detailed write up elsewhere in this newsletter.

Also, please review this month's newsletter for details about upcoming outings. "British Invasion" will be the theme of our September 14th outing to Crazy Gators, hosted by Linda and Arthur Stowell. On September 28th we will have a brunch outing with members bringing their favorite dishes to share at Hickory Point, hosted by Edna and Ron Korb. Please consider attending these events. Prepare for the upcoming hurricane Dorian and stay safe! Thanks for your support.

In the Past

by Kay Weaver, PYC Historian

December 8, 2001, at our Annual PYC Christmas Party at the Eustis Elks, we had six former Commodores in attendance, Ned Mastak, Charlie West, Terry Weaver, Dick Nagel, Woody Fish and Mike Manning plus our current Commodore, Roy Weddle. Gene Fehr and Kay Weaver were displaying pictures of events for the entire year of 2001. A review of 2001 by Gene Fehr gave us some interesting information. We had to reschedule an outing at Crazy Gator (formerly known as Sunset Steak House that had been shut down because a storm ripped off the roof) because of a washout under the restaurant. In September, Dead River Vic's closed, and we finally received some rain raising the lake levels but we needed more rain to keep the lakes from receding.

ST. JOHN'S RIVER OUTING – August 22 – 26

The August 22nd St. John's River trip was packed with activities, food and camaraderie! After launching our boats at Riviera Resort, we immediately headed north to the Whitehair Bridge and Shady Oaks Restaurant. Our boat ride after lunch was cut short, because of storm clouds. We needed rest and pool time before dinner at Emmy's Time Out Tavern. They served prime rib or authentic German main dishes with German soup and salad complimented with huge loaves of fresh bread. On Friday, we headed north on the St. John's River for approximately 20 miles to Astor, enjoying the scenery along the way. The river flows north and is a dark tea color. We stopped for lunch at the Blackwater Inn, opened specifically for our group. On the way south, we did have a very short burst of rain, but it was nice to be cooled down and over in a flash! Dinner was at Brian's BBQ on the truck route. Saturday, we went south on the river past Hontoon and Blue Springs State Park, winter home of a large group of manatees. It was a slower run because of so many no wake zones. Lunch was at Swamp House Grille at High Banks Marina and we had some excitement when someone dropped their keys in the water. Saturday night was pizza under the pavilion at Riviera Resort. We did get plenty of experience docking at the restaurants and getting in and out of the covered slips at Riviera Resort. A big thank you to our boat captains Jim Clarke, David Masterton, Gary Rhoads, Arthur Stowell, Nick Quackenbush and Terry Weaver for their efforts and willingness to bring their boats. Thanks to our Cruise Master Jim Clarke for his help on the water and Arthur Stowell, acting rear commodore. The trip ended on Sunday with a trip to Deleon Springs Old Mill Restaurant for pancakes. The out of town trips are not only a lot of fun, but a good time to get to know your fellow PYC members. In attendance were Commodore Vik Kapoor and his wife, Elizabeth, Secretary Cindy Kindinger and her husband, John, Treasurer Carol Clarke and her husband, Jim, Board Member Gary Rhoads and his wife, Cheryl, Board Member Dan Vincent and his wife, Sharon, Terry and Kay Weaver, Bill and Marie Davis, Dale and Judy Coon, Mike and Bonnie Wells, Bob Banta and Cathy, David and Barbara Masterton, Bill Marsella and Joanne Welsh, Arthur and Linda Stowell, and their friend, Danette Ritter, Nick and Alicia Quackenbush, and Jean Van Meter and Charlie Kilbourne.

Our wonderful hosts!

Off we go!
