The Art Pile LLC Proudly Sponsors Women With Knives for the 2026 Season

Cedar Springs, MI — 10/24/2025— The Art Pile LLC is proud to announce its sponsorship of Women With Knives (WWK) for the 2026 season. WWK is an international organization dedicated to empowering women through the sport of knife and tomahawk throwing, fostering confidence, community, and skill development across North America.

Founded in 2015, Women With Knives continues to grow its reach and impact, offering tournaments, mentorship programs, and creative events that celebrate women in the sport.

“The WWK community embodies strength, creativity, and empowerment—all values that deeply resonate with The Art Pile,” said Rebecca Lobinowich, Owner and Lead Designer of The Art Pile LLC, and Social Media and Design Coordinator for WWK. “Being part of this community and helping shape its visual presence has been an incredible experience. Sponsoring the 2026 season is our way of supporting and celebrating the women who make it so special.”

The Art Pile is a full-service graphic design studio based in Cedar Springs, MI, serving North America, specializing in custom logos, branding, and marketing materials that help businesses and organizations express their unique identities. Follow along with WWK’s 2026 season:
