

Curlew Lecture Stage

Sponsored by Colombia Travel and Wildlife Worldwide

COLOMBIA
THE COUNTRY OF BEAUTY

WILDLIFE
WORLDWIDE

Friday 11 July

1000

Chris Bell

Colombia: Land of Birds

Let's explore Colombia - the most bird-rich country on earth - on a journey from cloud forests to the Amazon jungle and beyond

1030

Mary Colwell

Curlews of the World

Looking at the status of Curlew around the world and asking the question "Are we looking after them?"

1100

Vaughan Ashby

6,000 bird species photographed on travels around the world

The best 1% of the 6,000 bird species photographed around the world from endangered, stunningly beautiful and with incredible adaptations

1130

Susan Morgan

Unravelling the crisis: the complex challenges facing UK songbirds

Exploring the latest research on UK songbird threats including disease, pollution and infrastructure, alongside what you can do to help.

1200

Mike Dilger

Papua New Guinea - Dilger in Paradise

Mike Dilger fulfils a life-long dream to visit Papua New Guinea by immersing himself in some of planet earth's most captivating birds - the Birds of Paradise.

1230

Leslie Reynolds

Where to Watch Birds in Zambia – Wetland Focus

This talk will bring the latest news on where to find Zambia's most exciting, elusive and charismatic birds

1300

Peter Waanders

Australia: Land of Parrots

An in-depth look at many of the 50+ species of parrots that live in every habitat found in Australia.

1330

Alejandra Rendón

Silent Stories of Birds of Colombia

A journey through the untold stories of some of Colombia's most extraordinary birds

1400

Lara Broom

Birdwatching in São Tomé and Príncipe, the African Galapagos

Why São Tomé and Príncipe should be on everyone's bucket list – dozens of endemic birds, welcoming people and beautiful scenery!

1430

Nick Acheson and Michael Warren

Wildlife and Nature Writing on the Isle of Islay

Join two naturalist-authors for an unforgettable tour of Islay, combining eagles, harriers, otters, wild geese and creative writing workshops.

1500

Mohit Aggarwal

Himalayan Birds - Hotspots and Challenges

Discover the diverse Himalayan birding hotspots, and understand the conservation challenges they face

1530

James Kimball

Western Caribbean Wildlife and Conservation, Bocas del Toro, Panama

Wildlife, regional endemism, geography, natural history, conservation/protection on the Western Caribbean Slope of Bocas Del Toro, Panamá

1600

Denis Bohm

Herzegovina - Spring Migration Along the Adriatic Flyway

Join us on a journey to Herzegovina region in southern Europe that lies on the Adriatic flyway migratory route.

1630

Chris Bell

2000 Birds: A Very Big South American Year

Tales of birding adventures from my 2024 South American "Big Year", during which I registered over 2,000 species!

1700

Mary Colwell

Creating a Nature-Literate Society

Giving an update on the status of the GCSE in Natural History - is it going to happen?

1730

Jonny Hanson

Snow Leopard Trail – Short Film Screening

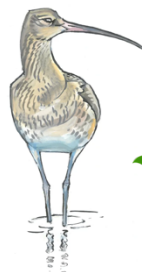

COLOMBIA
THE COUNTRY OF BEAUTY

WILDLIFE
WORLDWIDE

WILDLIFE
WORLDWIDE

Curlew Lecture Stage

Sponsored by Colombia Travel and Wildlife Worldwide

COLOMBIA
THE COUNTRY OF BEAUTY

WILDLIFE
WORLDWIDE

Saturday 12 July

- 0930 Tim Jones
Magic of Spurn
A walk through of a year's birding at Spurn, one of the best places for bird migration in the UK
- 1000 Amano Samarpan
Birds in Bhutan: avian wonders in a Himalayan kingdom
This talk discusses some of the major species to be found in Bhutan while reflecting on their environment
- 1030 Holly Page
Scottish Islands in Summer - the UK's answer to the Caribbean!
Remote, tranquil, turquoise seas, sweeping white sandy beaches, incredible wildlife! What's not to love?
- 1100 Prof Martin Perrow
The Adventures of Tern Boy
Innovative research on the UK's terns plus stories of the personal odyssey to see and understand all the world's species
- 1130 Rick Simpson
Wader Questing Down under part 2 - New Zealand
Sequel to last year's talk, we now travel to New Zealand where new waders (and mishaps) await
- 1200 Helen Bryon
The Call of the Kalahari
Join Helen as she describes the myriad of marvellous, often rare species, that have adapted to survive in the Kalahari
- 1230 Annie Shadrake
Being an autistic birdwatcher: my personal journey
What does birdwatching mean to me as autistic woman? How can nature reserves and bird festivals become more inclusive?
- 1300 Margaret Williams
Epic Habitat Restoration at Sea Lion Island
Join us to find out how we are helping native bird species thrive in Sea Lion Islands National Nature Reserve
- 1330 Mr. Matthew "Willow" Francois
The Small Six
The 'Small Six' is a groundbreaking wildlife tour that invites visitors to discover and celebrate six rare and endangered species that can only be found in Saint Lucia
- 1400 Raffaele Di Biase
The Land of Fire: Birds and Wildlife of the Atacama Desert and the Altiplano
A fantastic voyage from the sea level to 5000 metres discovering the birdlife of the driest desert on earth
- 1430 Chris Breen
Baja, the ultimate whale watching destination
Join Chris Breen as he describes one of his 'secret' favourite locations - Baja California - a place that exceeds all wildlife expectations!
- 1500 Axel Drioli
The sounds of Western Palearctic birds in Africa
Exploring different vocal behaviours of migratory birds such as Common Nightingales, Common Reed Warbler and other birds found during the recent Sounds Across Continents expedition in West Africa.
- 1530 Belen Rodriguez
Nature tourism in Asturias, the North of Spain
Presentation of the Bearded Vulture conservation program in the Cantabrian Mountain range (Spain)
- 1600 Carolyn Robertson
A bird positive Scotland by 2030
What does Scotland's goal of becoming nature positive by 2030 mean for birds and how do we get there?
- 1630 Toby Green
Sensational South Africa!
Birds and mammals from the Western Cape to Kruger National Park.

WILDLIFE
WORLDWIDE

SAINT LUCIA
LET HER INSPIRE YOU

WILDLIFE
WORLDWIDE

 Asturias
paraíso natural

Curlew Lecture Stage

Sponsored by Colombia Travel and Wildlife Worldwide

COLOMBIA
THE COUNTRY OF BEAUTY

Sunday 13 July

WILDLIFE
WORLDWIDE

1000 Naomi Johns

Understanding Falco tinnunculus - the European Kestrel

Unpicking the mystery behind their decline and just how the species is biologically adapted for their unique ecological role.

1030 James Stevens

The Hebrides: The UK's Wildest Isles

The wilderness/remoteness of the Inner and Outer Hebrides. Featuring cetaceans and seabird colonies

1100 Craig Fellowes

Fighting wildlife crime for over 40yrs and the importance of education.

Representing the Partnership for Action against Wildlife Crime, Craig has received an MBE for over 40 years services to wildlife protection

1130 Martin Beaton

Living with the Falkland Islands Wildlife

A beautifully illustrated, highly entertaining insight into life on the Falkland Islands.

1200 Helen Bryon

Brazil – A Tale of Three Biomes

Helen Bryon will regale you with stories from the three biomes she recently visited in Brazil including the little known Cerrado, the verdant Amazon and the incredible Pantanal

1230 Simon Barnes – for African Bird Club

Lost in the Bush: Birding and the Baron

A humorous tribute to a pioneer of Zambian birding, the late Bob Stjernstedt with whom Simon spent many fun and dramatic times

1300 Gustav Kiburg, Sony European Imaging Ambassador

Colours of Nature

As a wildlife and bird photographer I travel around the world to photograph the most colourful birds. I will be sharing beautiful images from Europe, including The Netherlands, Greece, France and Ireland as well as Costa Rica and Ecuador.

1330 Chandika Jayaratne

Sri Lanka's Wildlife in depth and how tourism is driving conservation

The Wildlife of Sri Lanka and how the tourism industry is driving conservation efforts and driving sustainability in the island

1400 Richard Baines

The Rarity Garden

The Great White Cape of Flamborough, a story of wild obsession

1430 Bret Charman

Australia - Wildlife Down Under

Discover the unique wildlife of Australia as Bret Charman shares his passion for the oddities that call this continent home.

1500 Belen Rodriguez

Ecotourist Reserve of Green Spain

Discover the best nature of Green Spain through a great route through protected natural spaces and ecotourism experiences

1530 John Horton

Bardsey - the island of twenty thousand saints and shearwaters

Bardsey is home to a world-famous bird observatory and is the 4th largest Manx Shearwater colony on earth.

SONY

SCAN ME

We hope you enjoyed your visit to Global Birdfair.
If you can donate direct to this year's Global Birdfair
Conservation Project, Safeguarding Ocean Species,
Please Scan the QR code. Thank you for your support.

