

Owl Workshop

Sponsored by Nikon

Friday 10 July

1000 Paul Hackett

Phonescoping. Let Paul take you through this amazing and addictive hobby, with his usual enthusiasm and pictures to encourage you to join the many now enjoying this form of photography!

1100 Kevin Clements, Jolene Orlowski and Claire Cresswell (Jack Snipe Research Group)

The Jack Snipe - Britain's least understood bird?

Learn how thermal imagers and GPS tags are increasing our understanding of Jack Snipe behaviour, local movements and migration.

1200 Tom Mason

Gear up for wildlife photography

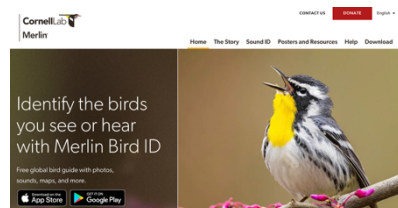

Join Nikon Ambassador and pro wildlife photographer Tom Mason to learn all about the essential gear for wildlife photography, from cameras and lenses to the more technical accessories, Tom will be helping you get to grips with kit you need to make great images out in the field, illustrated with his own work from the UK and around the world.

1300 Stephen Menzie

Behind the scenes of Merlin Sound ID

Learn how Merlin magically identifies birds by sound, and how you can help to make it better

1400 Sri Lanka workshop presentation

Join the Sri Lanka Tourism team to learn more about some of the highlights in Sri Lanka

1500 Neil Freeman

Mastering Mirrorless Technology – Wildlife

Join Neil for a dynamic guide to mastering wildlife photography. Learn how to unleash the full potential of your mirrorless camera and lenses with practical, field-tested tips on camera settings, autofocus modes, lens choices, and precise focusing techniques.

1600 Rob Read

Creative Bird Photography - Seeing Beyond the Literal

A creative journey into bird photography, inspiring photographers to move beyond documentation and explore abstraction, emotion, and artistic expression.

1700 James Cook

Edge of Extinction: Kākāpō Comeback — Film Screening with James Cook

James Cook teams up with New Zealand's Department of Conservation to track down and meet one of the world's rarest birds.

We hope you enjoyed your visit to Global Birdfair.
If you can donate direct to this year's Global Birdfair Conservation Project, Preventing Island Extinctions, Please Scan the QR code. Thank you for your support.

Owl Workshop

Sponsored by Nikon

Visit Nikon in Falcon F4

Saturday 11 July

1000 Dan Brown

Moth identification and ogling

Join us first thing as we enjoy some of the previous night's moth catch

1100 Paul Hackett

Phonescoping. Let Paul take you through this amazing and addictive hobby, with his usual enthusiasm and pictures to encourage you to join the many now enjoying this form of photography!

1200 Ricci Chera

Nikon Z Cameras & Lenses for Nature photography & Video

Join Ricci as he explores the capabilities of the Nikon Z cameras & lenses for capturing wildlife. Discover practical tips, techniques, and workflows for getting the most from your gear- whether you're shooting stills, video or both. There will also be an opportunity to get hands on with Ricci's favourite lenses.

1300 Helen Hutchings Cox

Gardening for Birds

A crash course in bird friendly gardening, including tips on planting to feed birds and creating safe nesting spots.

1400 David Chandler

Discover more about Dragonfly species around the UK – see if you can find any on a short walk following this workshop adjacent to the Global Birdfair site.

1500 Rachel Bigsby

How To Take Creative Bird Photographs

Join award winning seabird photographer, Rachel Bigsby, for a hands-on photography workshop to discover and learn her signature creative techniques

1600 Jimmi Hill

Owl Pellet Dissection

All generations are welcome to discover more about Owls and their diets by getting hands on finding out what is hidden in their pellets

1700 Paul Browning

Before You Press the Shutter

The Observation skills behind every wildlife photograph. Every memorable wildlife photograph begins long before the shutter is released. Join wildlife photographer Paul Browning as he shares the observation, fieldcraft and ethical approach that allows him to consistently find and photograph Britain's wildlife in its natural habitat.

Owl Workshop

Sponsored by Nikon

Visit Nikon in Falcon F4

Sunday 12 July

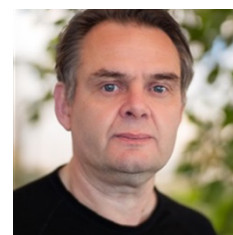

0930 Nick Baker & Ben Rumsby
Moth Session

Discover and learn about the moths in the overnight moth trap before their release

1100 Nick Wilcox Brown
Bird photography with your first camera

A guide for younger members of our community. A guide for the rest of us. Welcome to the world of nature photography. Depending on your interests and budget, that first camera does not have to be big, heavy or particularly expensive.

1200 Lara Jackson-Turner
A Lens for Conservation

Lara talks us through some of the projects she's worked on and how using a variety of lenses can elevate your visual storytelling.

1300 eBird and Merlin
An Introduction for new users and tips for more experienced eBirders

From your first checklist on eBird and your first bird sound recognition on Merlin, discover more about how these apps can help you record and learn more about the birds around you. Plus how you can help others with your sightings and sound recordings.

1400 Nick Baker and Neil Phillips
Life in Ponds

Videos and photos of pond life, with some interesting facts about them

1500 Nikon Q&A Session

Join Lara Jackson-Turner, Rachel Bigsby, Neil Freeman & Ricci Chera for an exclusive panel discussion

We hope you enjoyed your visit to Global Birdfair. If you can donate direct to this year's Global Birdfair Conservation Project, Preventing Island Extinctions, Please Scan the QR code. Thank you for your support.

