

Plover Lecture Stage

Sponsored by Naturetrek and Wild Rutland

Friday 12 July

- 0930 Tom Mason
Why you need a project as a wildlife photographer!
Join Tom and learn how to advance your wildlife photography through developing projects for creative images and photographic success.
- 1000 Paul Hackett
Phonescoping - the basics learn how to take pictures with a scope
- 1030 David Lindo
Urban birding
Keep looking up!
- 1100 Georgie Dodds - Naturetrek
Zambia uncovered.
Journey from South Luangwa to the Victoria Falls with Naturetrek's Georgie Dodds, exploring the awe-inspiring birds and other wildlife from the wild heart of Africa.
- 1130 Chandika Jayaratne
Sri Lanka's wildlife and conservation in a tourism perspective
Sri Lanka's diverse wildlife and its conservation efforts and the importance of tourism to the sustainability of the island wildlife and habitats
- 1200 Luke Paterson
Birding Adventures in Australia's Northern Territory & beyond
Discover northern Australia's incredible birdlife, wildlife & biodiverse landscapes with award-winning specialist guide Luke Paterson
- 1230 Mohit Aggarwal
A mesmerising journey to see the Trans Himalayan bird species
A breath-taking journey for the birds of Ladakh and Kashmir. Enjoy Tibetan specialties, the avifauna, and the landscapes of Kashmir
- 1300 Aaron Russ
The Birds and Conservation Success Stories of Heritage Expeditions
Discover the rare and unique birds you'll see on a Heritage Expeditions voyage and our conservation work to protect them
- 1330 Xavier Amigo
Darwin and Wolf, two unknown islands of the Galapagos archipelago
Darwin and Wolf are the northernmost and least known islands of the Galapagos and, above all, some of the most surprising
- 1400 Tom Mabbett – Naturetrek
Brazil – Harpy Eagles to Jaguars
Join Tom Mabbett for a talk on these apex predators. Tom will update us on the status of the eagles in the state of Mato Grosso and also cover Jaguar watching in the Northern Pantanal.
- 1430 Craig Jones
No Man's Land - Not far from the Russian / Finnish border
Some of Europe's rarest mammals carve out a living. Discover this special place and incredible mammals along with work being done to save them from extinction.
- 1500 Wild Rutland
- 1530 Dominic Garcia-Hall
Retracing Darwin's Footsteps: The Voyage of The Beagle through birds.
Following 2 decades guiding trips in Patagonia, this talk unites history with the modern ecology and diversity of Patagonia's birds.
- 1600 Alain Pascua
Introduction to Philippine Endemic Birds and Philippine Bird Tours
Presentation of basic information about Endemic Birds of the Philippines, popular birding sites & packages
- 1630 Grant Reed
Birding in Botswana
Time of year, species, areas to visit in Northern Botswana and surrounding areas.
- 1700 Dan Brown
Which Antarctic Expedition Cruise?
An Expedition Leaders 'All you need to know' about where to visit, when & with whom on an Antarctic cruise
- 1730 Atilla Steiner
Georgia and Armenia, treasures of the Caucasus
Countries of exceptional beauty with diverse wildlife, rare, regional endemic birds, ancient history, great food and delicious wine

Plover Lecture Stage

Sponsored by Naturetrek and Wild Rutland

Saturday 13 July

- 0930 Scott Whittle
Powering up Conservation - using technology to save wildlife
A short history and current state of technologies used to track and protect wildlife
- 1000 Andrew St Joseph
The East Atlantic Flyway of Coastal Birds
50 Years of Exciting Moments in Nature Conservation and Research
- 1030 Richard Parsons
Biodiversity and Bellavista: Discover the beautiful birds of Northwestern Ecuador
This lecture explores the special birds of Bellavista Private Protected Area and of the surrounding Piichincha Ecuador UNESCO Biosphere Reserve
- 1100 Ben Chapple – Naturetrek
India's Wild Heart
Join Naturetrek's Ben Chapple on a journey to the forests of Madhya Pradesh, home to tigers, bears, wild dogs and more!
- 1130 Boris Belchev
Autumn migration magic at Curonian spit National Park
Come and discover the biggest passerine bird migration route with millions of birds passing overhead, sometimes a hand away
- 1200 John White
Getting Started with Birda Birdwatching App
Overview of the Birda, the community and how to make the most of Birda's features and functionality.
- 1230 Sophie Dingwall
South Pole Expedition insights to the birding world
We will have one of our expert birders, that is a specialist in Antarctica and South Georgia to give a lecture on the birds in these areas
- 1300 Claudien Nsabagasani
Birding and wildlife tourism in East Africa
Uniqueness of East Africa as a birdwatching, safaris and trekking primate destination. I talk about special birds, unique wildlife and facilities
- 1330 Norby Lopez
Rediscovering the Biodiverse Amazon of Ecuador
Showcasing mega biodiversity of Amazonian Ecuador, species of birds, mammals, native cultures, organized travel options, supporting conservation in Ecuador
- 1400 Ben Chapple - Naturetrek
Mammals of Madagascar
The remarkable story of the island's unique mammalian inhabitants, and how to see them in the wild. With Ben Chapple from Naturetrek
- 1430 Tobago Birding Representative
Birding in Tobago
Birding in Tobago
- 1500 Wild Rutland
- 1530 Peter Waanders
Australia's amazing outback birding spectacle
Showcases the boom and bust of outback birdlife throughout wet and dry years
- 1600 Alberto Bosque Coello
Proposals for fauna and flora observation in the region of Castilla y León (Spain)
Birds and mammals all year round in a natural paradise
- 1630 Oliver Wright
Adventures of a Macro Photographer in Wildlife Rich Bulgaria
An illustrated talk to showcase the amazing, smaller, wildlife found in Bulgaria, including close-up photography techniques
- 1700 Arjun Sinsinwar
Voyage across Bhitarkanika National Park, Orissa, & immerse in this unique ecosystem
Launched for first time in January, new sailings in Bhitarkanika national park showcase hidden gems in India's Orissa state that offers rich & abundant natural & cultural heritage
- 1730 Harry Munt
Rewilding The Anthropocene
Wrynecks and bad diets. Shrikes and mental health. Sparrows and urbanization. How rewilding the world, starts with rewilding the human

Plover Lecture Stage

Sponsored by Naturetrek and Wild Rutland

Sunday 14 July

- 0930 Paul Hackett
Phonescoping - the basics learn how to take pictures with a scope
Learn top tips from an expert and you can visit Paul on the Kowa stand in Falcon Marquee
- 1000 Vicente Pantoja-Maggi
Science and community together in Birds Of The World: the case of Chile
Chilean team updates 15-30 accounts yearly, including scientific and grey literature. We aim to promote accounts updates in other countries.
- 1030 Louis Schopp
Ranger life - living and working as a Ranger
From the perspective of a ranger at the start of their career - why become a ranger?
- 1100 Paul Stanbury – Naturetrek
Costa Rica – Quetzals & Cloudforests
Naturetrek's Paul Stanbury travels around the forests and wetlands of Costa Rica, a small country in Central America home to over 900 species of bird, including the Resplendent Quetzal, arguably the most beautiful bird in the world!
- 1130 Sara Frost – Naturetrek
St Kilda
St Kilda
- 1200 Wild Rutland
- 1230 Steven Stansfield
Bird Observatories - what are they all about?
An introduction to the work of the Bird Observatories
- 1300 Mohit Aggarwal
Saving the threatened avifauna of Gujarat and Rajasthan
The session will focus on conservation efforts for key species in North-Western India's grasslands, deserts, and wetlands
- 1330 Craig Jones
Ethical Wildlife Photography - we need to step back, think twice about we're doing
This talks shows you some simple ways to work with wildlife first and photographs second. Ethics can be a minefield
- 1400 Andy Tucker – Naturetrek
Galapagos
Andy Tucker from Naturetrek describes the highlights of a cruise around the fabled Galapagos Islands in Ecuador. Giant Tortoises, boobies, albatrosses, penguins, snorkelling and more!
- 1430 Charles Anderson
The Wandering Glider Dragonfly – the World's Greatest Migrant
The Wandering Glider Dragonfly is known to travel great distances. But only recently has research revealed it's quite extraordinary migrations.
- 1500 Eleni Galinou
Spring/summer 2024 highlights for Lesvos, Greece
Breeding season and spring migration of birds 2024. Common birds, hotspots and the best tips to visit Lesvos

