

Turnstone Authors

Friday 10 July 2026

0930 Dave Wilkinson
Microworlds

Microworlds brings to life a whole new ecosystem populated by a bewildering array of forms living extraordinary lives. It is a remarkable eyeopener for all naturalists.

1030 Jamie Lafferty

An Inconvenience of Penguins

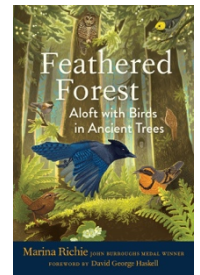

Epic voyages in pursuit of the world's most beloved bird. Discover more from award-winning travel writer Jamie Lafferty as he visited all 18 species in a bid to understand the birds and their extraordinarily varied habitats a little better.

1130 Marina Richie

Feathered Forest: Aloft with Birds in Ancient Trees

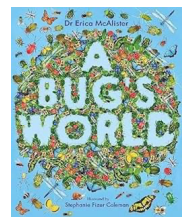

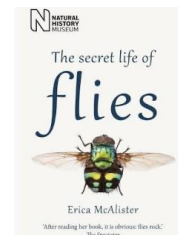

A photo-filled preview of an award-winning nature author's new book features birds as guides to secret realms of Pacific Northwest ancient forests. From the Pacific Wren, Hermit Warbler, and Great Gray Owl to the imperilled Spotted Owl and Marbled Murrelet, each bird reveals aspects of critical refugia in a time of climate crisis.

1230 Erica McAlister

Flies and Why they Matter

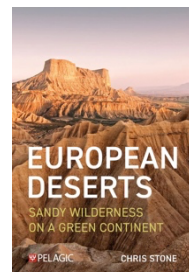

The Secret Life of Flies, The Inside out of Flies and A Bug's World. Erica McAlister Hon. FRES is an entomologist, museum curator and presenter in the United Kingdom. She is an expert in flies and is senior curator at the Natural History Museum, London

1330 Chris Stone

European Deserts. Sandy Wilderness on a Green Continent

Conserving European Deserts: Where Extreme Environmental Conditions are the Norm. Chris focuses upon Europe's little-known outback regions, whose survival is threatened despite their distinctive biodiversity, landscapes and fascinating human tales

1430 Michael Brooke

No Island Too Far; Searching for Seabirds on Remote Specks of land
The lecture, linked to a recent Pelagic book, describes the joys and adventures of seabird research on immensely distant islands.

1530 Lucy Lapwing and beloved guests

Love is a Toad

Nature through the lens of joy and grief; how we all deal with a love and fascination for the natural world, whilst at the same time watching it decline

1630 Peter Cavanagh

How Birds Fly: The Science and Art of Avian Flight

Peter Cavanagh, a dedicated bird photographer, pilot and expert in the fields of aerodynamics and anatomy, has dedicated a decade to crafting this remarkable book, How Birds Fly.

Book Signing available for copies bought at Global Birdfair will be held next to Wild Sounds and Books in Nightingale Marquee after these Turnstone talks.

Turnstone Authors

Saturday 11 July 2026

0930 Paul Stancliff and Jeff Baker
Collins British Birds Identifier

This book brings together exceptional new artwork, with a unique, practical and comprehensive guide to the five essential features needed to identify every species of British bird

1030 Kenn Kaufman
The British Roots of Early North American Bird Study

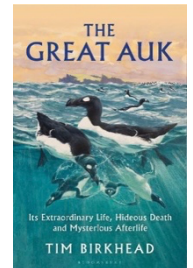

From 1700 to 1840, every advance in the study of North American birds rested on essential support from Great Britain

EASILY NAME ALL SPECIES USING ONLY 5 FEATURES WITH THE 5 I METHOD

1130 Tim Birkhead
The Great Auk

In a book rich with insight and packed with tales of birds and of people Tim Birkhead reveals previously unimagined aspects of the bird's life before humanity. Its Extraordinary Life, Hideous Death and Mysterious Afterlife - A DAILY TELEGRAPH BOOK OF THE YEAR

1230 Dale Forbes and Iain Campbell
The amazing diversity in the Habitats of Europe

From the Iberia's savannas to Arctic tundra, Habitats of Europe reveals how landscapes shape the birds and wildlife we love. The essential field guide to all of Europe's major habitats—visually stunning, meticulously researched, and packed with invaluable information.

1330 Katie Stacey in conversation with WildlifeKate
No Paradise with Wolves and Other Rewilding Stories

Author Katie Stacey, from Wild Finca, and WildlifeKate from Gwyllt Hollow bring two nature-first projects to the stage: a family finca in the mountains of Asturias and 3 acres of Welsh countryside. A conversation about coexistence, conviction, and what it truly means to put wildlife before everything else

1430 Dan Rouse, Megan Shersby, Rebecca Gibson, Heather Devey
Watching Wildlife; Low-Carbon way in the UK!

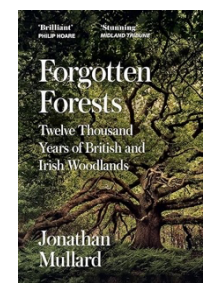

Discussion with the four authors of Bloomsbury's Where to Watch Wildlife: Low Carbon. Hear from each contributor as they take you on a fascinating and rewarding trip around the UK.

Watch

1530 Jonathan Mullard
Birds of the Forgotten Forests

A comparison of bird communities in the ancient forests with those of the present day and opportunities for their recovery

1630 Stephen Moss and Michael J Warren
Why we all need a local patch

Two lifelong birders reflect on why having a local patch is at the heart of their birding experience.

Book Signing available for copies bought at Global Birdfair will be held next to Wild Sounds and Books in Nightingale Marquee after these Turnstone talks.

Turnstone Authors

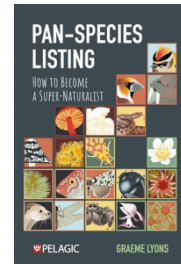

Sunday 12 July 2026

0930 Graeme Lyons

Pan-species Listing: How to Become a Super-Naturalist

What PSL is, the benefits, how to do it, how it can change your life, neurodivergence, a tour of the 38 taxonomic groups and lots of anecdotes.

1030 Amanda Tuke

Wild Pavements: Exploring Britain's Cities with an Urban Naturalist

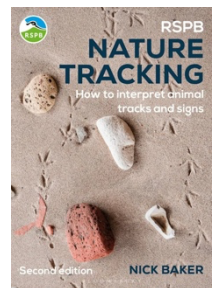

"A glorious and timely celebration of our often-under-valued urban nature, and the people who care for it" Stephen Moss

1130 Nick Baker

Nature Tracking: How to interpret animal tracks and signs

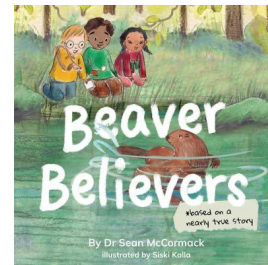

Every animal leaves traces as it passes through its habitat. By learning to interpret signs like paw prints, leftover food and scrapes in the earth, you can build the story of an animal's life and discover intriguing details and hidden meanings

1230 Sean McCormack

Beaver Believers

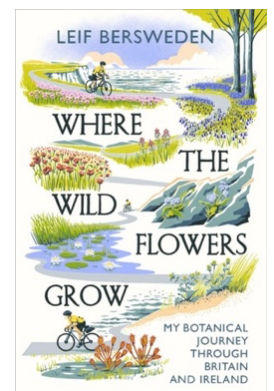

When the neighbourhood gets flooded, Patrick, Abi and Jacob use their curiosity and imagination to come up with an unusual solution to the problem – beavers! But even though the children have done their research, the grown-ups don't take them seriously. Can they win over the adults and get the go-ahead for their plan? Find out in this science packed adventure story!

1330 Leif Bersweden

Where the Wildflowers Grow: My Botanical Journey through Britain & Ireland

Join Leif on a big botanical bicycle adventure around the country, discovering some extraordinary plants along the way

1430 Stephen Lovell

Clowns to Cuckoos

A personal diary of nature existing in a Covid World

Book Signing available for copies bought at Global Birdfair will be held next to Wild Sounds and Books in Nightingale Marquee after these Turnstone talks. Watch for details on site

We hope you enjoyed your visit to Global Birdfair. If you can donate direct to this year's Global Birdfair Conservation Project, Preventing Island Extinctions, Please Scan the QR code. Thank you for your support.

