

"Please Don't Yell at We is a fun and whimsical story to be enjoyed by kids and parents alike. It helps parents to remember to pause and reflect on the fact that as they learn and have fun, kids are simply and sincerely, just being kids."

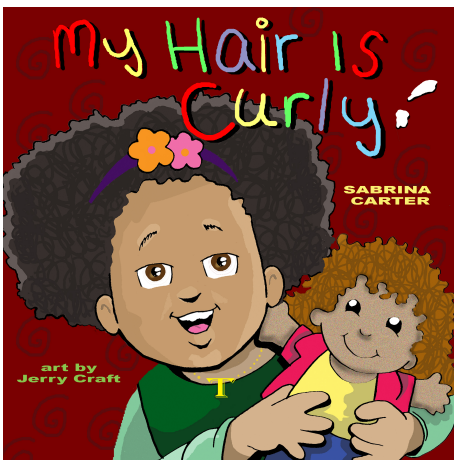

Elise Cooper MSW, LCSW
Yale Child Study Center

"Thank you, Sabrina for reminding us of how important listening is to our children's overall well-being! While we are human and make mistakes, we have to stop being too busy for those whose lives we ultimately shape."

Alicia Terry Henderson
Psychotherapist

Author Reading

"My Hair is Curly is a clever tale that offers young children an opportunity to learn to appreciate who they are, showing once again that being accepted is not guaranteed by looking like everyone else."

Eleanor D. White, Ed. D
Assistant Superintendent, Retired
