INTRODUCTION TO ORGANIZATION CONTINUITY PLANNING

PREPARED BY LAUREN MEISTER
JULY 2024

WHAT IS ORGANIZATION CONTINUITY PLANNING?

- Continuity planning is a process that helps organizations to prepare for and respond to disruptions, stresses, or shocks that could impact their operations.

WHAT TYPES OF DISRUPTIONS CAN IMPACT YOUR ORGANIZATION?

- Natural disasters such as an earthquake or flooding
- Economic recession
- Human-caused hazards such as an act of violence or cyber-attack
- Technology or utility-related hazards such as a power outage or explosion
- Health-related hazards such as a pandemic
- Planned events such as a street closure, big event, or rally

HOW VULNERABLE IS YOUR ORGANIZATION?

- Complete Vulnerability Analysis Chart
- Start by listing possible disruption scenarios
- For each...
 - ✓ Estimate probability of occurrence
 - ✓ Rate impact on people, property, and business
 - ✓ Evaluate internal and external resources

Vulnerability Analysis Chart

TYPE OF EMERGENCY	Probability	Human Impact	Property Impact	Business Impact	Internal Resources	External Resources	Total
	High 5 ← 1 Low	High Impact	5 ← 1 Low Impact		Weak Resources 5 ← 1 Strong Resources

The lower the score the better

WHY IS PLANNING IMPORTANT?

- To consider the potential risks and impacts that could disrupt operations
- To have strategies in place to minimize impacts
- To ensure that the organization can continue operating during and after a disruption

WHERE DO WE START?

WHAT ARE KEY ELEMENTS OF AN ORGANIZATION CONTINUITY PLAN?

- An overview of the organization and its operations
- A risk assessment that identifies the types of disruptions most likely to face
- Strategies for minimizing the impact of disruptions
- Plans for communicating with employees, clients, and other stakeholders
- An incident response plan
- A recovery plan

REMEMBER...

- A Continuity Plan is something that should be flexible to adapt to different situations.
- A Continuity Plan should be regularly reviewed and updated to reflect current risks and to ensure that it is effective in case of an emergency.
- Conduct regular drills to test the plan and to identify any areas that may need improvement.

ABOUT

Emergency Network Los Angeles (ENLA) is the Los Angeles County unit of the National Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster (NVOAD) and the Southern California VOAD.

ENLA represents over 50 nonprofits and government entities working in the space of community welfare and emergency management (mitigation, preparation, response, and recovery).

Our impact is felt daily across the Los Angeles metropolitan County. Whether it is food distribution, earthquake preparedness, wildfire recovery, or responding to global pandemics, you will see the hard work of our members and our volunteers reflected in the communities we serve.

To boost the effectivity of service providers working with communities affected by disaster , our forum promotes the “Four C’s” of emergency management – Cooperation, Communication, Coordination, and Collaboration.

ENLA is a California non-profit, charitable corporation under IRS section 501(c)(3). The organization is governed by a board of directors comprised of representatives from community-based organizations (CBOs), national disaster agencies, and non-voting government representatives.
