

Emergency Network Los Angeles, Inc. (ENLA)

Annual Report 2024-2025

Message from the Executive Committee

Dear Friends and Supporters,

The 2025 Los Angeles Wildfires tested our region in profound ways—and once again demonstrated the importance of ENLA's role as the VOAD for Los Angeles County. With the strength of our network and the commitment of our partners, we were able to deliver timely support and resources when our community needed them most.

This past year, ENLA has deepened its capacity, strengthened collaborations, and advanced preparedness efforts to ensure that our region is better equipped for future challenges. None of this would be possible without your continued support.

Thank you for standing with us in this mission. Together, we are building a stronger, more resilient Los Angeles.

With gratitude,

Executive Committee, ENLA Board of Directors

About ENLA

History

Founded in March 1996, two years after the Northridge Earthquake, Emergency Network Los Angeles (ENLA) was established to formally organize a VOAD (Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster) for Los Angeles County. ENLA is Los Angeles County's official VOAD and is part of the state and national Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster movement.

Mission Statement

ENLA's mission is to enhance the capacity of nonprofit, community and faith-based organizations, government agencies, and the private sector in managing emergencies (preparedness, response to, and recovery from disasters in Los Angeles County) by fostering cooperation, communication, coordination, and collaboration.

Our Network

ENLA represents a robust network of over 90 nonprofit, community- and faith-based organizations, and government entities dedicated to community welfare and emergency management. Our partners range from food banks to houses of worship to mental healthcare providers, ensuring swift and effective support during emergencies.

Our Work

ENLA has become a model of how community- and faith-based organizations (CBOs and FBOs) can network to better assist one another during and following emergencies and disasters. As a result, communities in need are served faster and more effectively.

Our Impact

Our impact is felt daily across Los Angeles County. Whether it is food distribution, earthquake preparedness, wildfire recovery, or responding to global pandemics, you will see the hard work of ENLA member organizations and its volunteers reflected in the communities we serve.

VOAD Activities and Achievements

Disaster Update Calls

Held monthly, or more often when needed, these calls foster dialogue among our members and provide updates on organizational activities and events. ENLA also participated in CA VOAD calls.

Membership Meetings

Meetings are typically quarterly and feature guest speakers on topics such as emergency preparedness, communications, and recovery services. These sessions are both informative and educational and offer opportunities for collaboration and networking.

Communications

ENLA continues to enhance communications with its weekly “Road to Resiliency: tips, news, & updates” email to members and other partners, and its website (enla.org), which includes pages on preparedness, readiness to respond, community resources, events, membership resources, how to get involved, sponsorship opportunities, current activations, and more.

Education & Resources

ENLA provides access to resources, educational materials, training, and other useful information through its website, enla.org, which can be utilized by member organizations, as well as the general public. ENLA has also launched a monthly Lunch & Learn series for its member organizations, with topics such as disaster preparedness, resilience, continuity planning, communications, and more.

Workshops

Since March of 2021, ENLA has been hosting interactive workshops exclusive to our members, focusing on subjects relevant to emergency management. As mentioned previously, in 2025, ENLA launched its new monthly Lunch & Learn series focusing on preparedness and response.

Exercises

Members of ENLA and ENLA staff attended Supply Chain Interruption functional exercises hosted by the City of Los Angeles as well as an Extreme Heat tabletop exercise hosted jointly by LA County and the City of Los Angeles.

Meetings with Government Partners

In fiscal year 2024/25, ENLA staff has attended and participated in meetings with the City of Los Angeles Emergency Management Department, the County of Los Angeles Office of Emergency Management and Department of Public Health, offices of LA County Supervisors, and state representatives.

Presentations

ENLA staff continues to make presentations to interested parties about the organization and its activities. For instance, ENLA presented on its wildfire disaster response to its member organizations as well as to the San Bernardino County VOAD.

Membership Growth

In the past fiscal year, nonprofit membership grew its nonprofit, community and faith-based membership over 50 percent. In addition, several local municipalities joined ENLA, including the City of Santa Monica, the City of Downey, and the City of Rancho Palos Verdes.

Functional Committees

ENLA's six functional committees typically meet quarterly, or more often if needed, to support the emergency management infrastructure of Los Angeles County.

Communications Committee provides for the coordination of ENLA communications services by ensuring that key information and updated status reports are distributed among ENLA members and government emergency response agencies during disaster or emergency events. Preparing for this role is an on-going function of the committee.

Donations Management Committee works on the handling and distribution of in-kind donations before, during, and after a disaster has occurred.

Emotional and Spiritual Care Committee looks after the mental health and wellbeing of Los Angeles County residents, with special emphasis on individuals affected by disaster.

Mass Care Committee is responsible for analyzing and implementing the preparedness, response, and recovery efforts of ENLA members to feed, shelter, provide short-term housing and meet other immediate needs for persons adversely affected by disaster. It will include efforts to help organizations serving those with special needs (seniors, DAFN, homeless, limited English proficiency, animals, etc.) to better prepare for emergencies or disasters.

Recovery and Case Management Committee is activated in a declared emergency or disaster and consists of organizations involved with case management and other activities related to recovery on an on-going basis after an emergency or disaster. These services are delivered under difficult environmental conditions that typically result in loss of infrastructure, disruption of operations, and special challenges for communication, record keeping, coordination, and efficiency. The committee stays connected to local, regional, state and, in a declared disaster area, federal assistance, and stays connected to local FEMA activated entities.

Volunteer Management Committee is tasked with taking account of volunteer resources of the VOAD's member organizations. The committee will also be charged with planning for the influx of volunteers that occurs during and after an emergency or disaster and will help to match volunteers with organizations providing direct services to those affected by the disaster.

Grant Programming

Emergency Preparedness, Response, & Recovery

ENLA received over $1.2 million in grants and donations in Fiscal Year 2024/25.

Funds donated directly to Emergency Network Los Angeles (ENLA) for the wildfires have been, and continue to be, used towards wildfire response and recovery efforts, which include:

- Resources for impacted communities through multi-agency resource centers (MARC)s and other venues
- Relief for specific needs of our member organizations as they continue to respond to this disaster and engage in recovery efforts
- Seed money for long-term recovery groups (LTRGs) as they “stand up” to support wildfire survivors in their communities
- Operations – ENLA acts as the Incident Coordinator for its nonprofit members during and following a disaster

Our GRANTORS in Fiscal Year 2024/25 include:

California Community Foundation (CCF) awarded ENLA a $200,000 grant in January 2025. The funding supports ENLA’s wildfire response, as well as general operations and programming. In blues skies as well as grey skies, ENLA plays a role in all cycles of emergency management. This grant is critical for ENLA to meet one of its primary objectives — strengthening emergency management infrastructure across LA County.

LA County Third Supervisorial District (Supervisor Lindsey P. Horvath) awarded a $14,000 discretionary social program grant in February 2025. The funding supports ENLA’s Resilient & Prepared Community Partners (RPCP) Initiative, a multi-year initiative to help Los Angeles County communities prepare for, withstand, and recover from shocks or stresses, such as natural disasters, economic downturns, public health crises, large-scale events, or other disruptions. The focus is on preparing community and faith-based organizations for disasters through emergency preparedness and resilience education and training.

Edison International awarded ENLA with a $10,000 grant in November 2024. The funding supports ENLA’s Energizing Resiliency & Equity in Emergency Management program by covering staff time and program operating costs, training of ENLA community partners and staff, as well as production of emergency preparedness/educational materials to be distributed by community partners, to promote and enhance preparedness and response capacity in LA County.

SBP awarded $6,000 in November 2024 through SBP’s 2024 Preparedness and Resilience Micro Grant Program to support community preparedness and resiliency programming. The goal of this program is to promote direct community impact and engagement.
