FROM OUR DIRECTOR...

Welcome to Live! Griffins Through the Ages

I have been a part of The Griffin Players family for nearly 18 years now, having helped backstage during the Christmas panto, Cinderella, alongside people I now consider my closest friends.

My first introduction to the society was watching a family friend perform in the 2005 production of 'A Slice of Saturday Night'. If you had told me back then that I would not only be the Chairman of the society, but also directing the 90th Anniversary Concert, I wouldn't have believed you.

But here I am. Sharing the stage with the most amazingly talented group of people and celebrating everything that the society has achieved over the course of its 90 year history, from its humble beginnings as The Vauxhall Motor Group Theatrical Section all the way to the present day and looking towards the future.

I would like to thank the cast for working so incredibly hard during the rehearsal process to deliver a fantastic display of Musical Theatre history. I would also like to thank my Choreographer, Kyra Spratley and my Musical Director, Cheryl Desborough for delivering everything and more to this show. It has been hard work, but we got there!

I would also like to show my appreciation to John O'Leary-Fawcett. He has taken my idea of creating videos showcasing the history of the society and has produced some incredible material. On top of this, he has also been helping to deliver a professional looking publicity campaign for this concert. This was all achieved while rehearsing for this concert, directing another show and helping another society with their publicity!

A huge shoutout must be made to The Luton Creative Community, a volunteer group that have formed to reopen The Library Theatre, which has been the home of The Griffin Players since 1982.

Finally, I would like to thank our audiences. Without you The Griffin Players simply would not be here. You are the driving force behind why The Griffin Players have been successful for the past 90 years, and are the reason we keep striving to bring quality live entertainment to the stage.

Here is to another 90 years!

A BRIEF GRIFFIN HISTORY

The Griffin Players began life in 1934, as the Theatrical Section of Vauxhall Motor Group. Not much is known about the early productions, other than information found on a single page of a programme from a 1936 Variety Show.

Only five years into the running of the group, the world was at war and the first of many challenges to face the society began. Vauxhall Motor Group began manufacturing tanks, armoured vehicles and the first 12 jet engines to be manufactured in the UK.

To keep up morale, the Theatrical section partnered with the Male Voice and Girls Choirs and the Concert section to form 'The Wyverns', an entertainment society that performed throughout the local area, as well as performing at Service Camps and Hospitals to over 3000 service men and women.

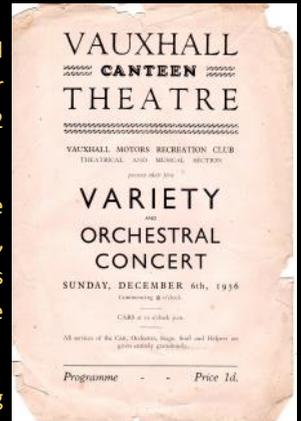

After the War, the society went from strength to strength, earning accolades and awards, with many of their productions being highly popular with critics. In 1971, the society was running out of personnel and ideas, and in 1972 decided to take an extended hiatus.

It was to be 4 years before the Theatrical Section was to be reborn. In 1976, after gaining traction from the Vauxhall Mirror, Tom Redfearn, Steve Morris and Bryan Millin reignited the Theatrical section, and in 1977 produced William Douglas Home's "Lloyd George knew my Father". After a few more productions and once again gaining more loyal members, it was decided a rebranding was required. In 1979, The Griffin Players performed their first production under this new name. Agatha Christie's "And Then There Were None".

In 1980, Vauxhall Motors announced that they were unable to fund a trip to a local pantomime for the employees and families to enjoy, so The Griffins took on the challenge, first producing Alice in Winter Wonderland, a mini panto, before producing their first traditional pantomime, Cinderella, in 1981. This is a tradition that The Griffins still have to this day!

1983 saw the societies first foray into Musical Theatre with the hit show, Grease. This began a long standing love of musical theatre, which we are celebrating in this concert.

In 2017, The Griffins departed from Vauxhall Motors and became a completely separate entity. This meant losing our fabulous workshop area, affectionately known as 'The Shed of Dreams'. Many of our incredibly high quality sets were built and painted by Gary Nash in that workshop. The society briefly moved to a new home at Heathfields School in Caddington, where again The Griffins had a wonderful workshop area as well as rehearsal venue. However after a few years, the society were to rehome once again, losing the workshop spaces completely and having to store all set within a Garage area.

During the COVID pandemic, due to theatres not being open and the society needing to reduce outings, a more economical storage unit was discovered and The Griffins once again moved to their current storage area during the summer of 2020 (socially distanced of course)!

The rehearsal home of The Griffins became Bushmead Community Hub, who have been amazing to work with. They always ensure a clean suitable work space for rehearsals, and The Griffins are incredibly grateful for the support that Bushmead Community Hub have provided over the years.

The Griffins always aim to be a society for the community and are honoured to work alongside Active Luton and Epic Luton to provide theatre for families that would not usually be able to attend, as well as providing a relaxed performance for their family panto.

cherished Memories

"Having been reassured by Sam Baldock I didn't need to drink to go on stage, swapping out the contents of the tonic bottle for gin and the gin bottle for tonic on the bar on the set! Every time she, as my secretary, poured me a "drink " it was happy hour all over again! I never told her! Till NOW" - Eileen Kirby

"Favourite is meeting my husband during Cinderella in 2000! I loved playing Geraldine in the Vicar of Dibley. Funniest moment (for me, not for anyone else in the show...) was realising I'd skipped a whole scene in Aladdin and Luke had to work out what to do about it as he was on next." - Dee Lovelock

"As the baddie in Sinbad! "I'm Sinistro the sorcerer, I'm wicked and I'm vile, and when I do my wickedness, I do the thing with style". Having 600+ kids stamp their feet and shout "Kill him, kill him" for 5 minutes. (so many due to an overbooking of the Vauxhall Staff canteen)." - Chris

"In City of Angels—"You'll have to shoot me first" as Elliott handed over his gun to Sue, as she realised her 'hidden' one wasn't on set. " - Anna Carter Brown

"I have made so many lifelong friends over my (nearly) 20 years with The Griffin Players and have so many funny memories, I don't think I could choose one! My favourite though would have to be sharing the stage with my son for the first time when he joined the Family Panto fun in 2022" - Kate Johnson

"Having my first stage kiss with the wonderful Paul Rogers during Rock of Ages. We would constantly annoy his daughters by doing it whenever we could!" - Joshua Thompson

"There are so many. Loved all of the rehearsals. So much fun. Also loved the Griffins camping trips - 'And that's how we got the gazebo!' Miss you all so much!" - Jade Newshaw

"Far too many to choose from: Stapling my finger to a plastic urinal just before the opening performance of a Slice of Saturday night springs to mind. As does our cast dragging a fully-laden sledge through the town dressed in full polar exploration gear during an August heat-wave and not a single member of the public batted an eye-lid. Building the set for Sweeney Todd with Debbie Cheshire and Steve Wilson and making Audrey II puppets from scratch for the first Little Shop of Horrors were extremely challenging , rewarding and immense fun." -

Gary Pursey-Nash

THE GRIFFIN PLAYERS

The Griffin Players are run entirely by volunteers, and we have lots of opportunities for volunteers to help us out to play the big part in our community that we do.

Firstly, we are always interested in new people who would like to help out with one of productions; whether it's front of house, backstage, set design, lighting, costumes, sound, or another element of production, there is plenty of opportunity for you to get involved.

Secondly, if you want to get involved in the running of this group, then you could join our Committee members in helping behind the scenes to create the magic that is seen on-stage.

Finally, we are looking for new Directors, Musical directors and Choreographers for future shows. If you are interested in letting your creative side out, then get in contact with us.

Community theatre has an amazing place in giving opportunities to people of all ages, and as volunteers, any help given is greatly appreciated. Previous experience is not always necessary.

Why not speak to one of our team members today if you are interested, or visit us online via our Facebook page or at thegriffinplayers.co.uk.

Luton Creative Community (LCC) warmly welcome the Griffin Players to the Luton Library Theatre, as the first society to perform at Luton's newly opened community run theatre. A community theatre for the community, run entirely by a small team of volunteers.

We would like to thank the Griffin Players for their continued support of the Library Theatre, and also thank their members, many of whom have played an invaluable role in LCC, as we battle to save the Library Theatre as a performance space, when there was a real danger it would close forever.

As we welcome you to our theatre, it may appear that everything is finished, but sadly that is not the case. The lights and sound you enjoy today during the production have been brought in temporarily by the Griffins. When they leave, LCC have the task of installing our own lighting and sound equipment, some of which still needs to be purchased.

Much has been donated for which we are hugely thankful, but we are still in desperate need of additional funds to help us complete the many outstanding tasks.

You can easily donate using any of the QR codes around the theatre, or by following this link, for which we would be immensely grateful.

Thank you for supporting the Griffin Players and LCC. We hope to see you back at the Library Theatre very soon.
