

SIMON AND PRINCESS BEAUTY AUDITION

- PRINCESS Oh, Simon – what a great day I am having, so many presents and I have had such a wonderful time, and you have done so much, thank you.
- SIMON I have always tried to help you, I know what it is like to be on your own in the World, I just wonder sometimes who my real Mum was.
- PRINCESS Maybe one day you will find out, you have to have a dream.
- SIMON A dream, well what is yours?
- PRINCESS I dream that one day I will wake up to find my true love.
- SIMON That's a very good dream, Beauty. My dream is to work out the unfathomable depths of life, and liberty reflected in the disheartening dichotomy of true good and chaotic evil.
- PRINCESS That is a splendid idea, Simon. I know, to start, let's sing that song you used to sing to me when I was little.
- SIMON Which song? Oh, I don't know!
- AUDIENCE But it's simple Simon!
