The National Vocation Summit
nationalvocationsummit.org
Coordinator@nationalvocationsummit.org

NATIONAL VOCATION SUMMIT

2027 National Vocation Summit to Gather Catholic Leaders in Kansas

September 8, 2026 - Catholic leaders from across the country will gather March 12–14, 2027, at Benedictine College in Atchison, Kansas, for the 2027 National Vocation Summit, themed "Transforming a Culture of Vocations."

The Summit brings together vocation directors, priests, religious, educators, parents, parish leaders and lay Catholics who share a desire to help young people discover God's call. Through inspiring speakers, practical formation, prayer and collaboration, participants will be equipped to bring a stronger culture of vocations back to their communities.

This year's Summit invites attendees to bring a team, recognizing that building a culture of vocations is a mission shared by the whole Church—not just vocation directors.

Featured speakers Katie McGrady, Dr. Edward Mulholland and Sr. Mary Michael Carlton, OP will bring their experience and expertise to the 2027 National Vocation Summit. Additional speakers will be announced in the coming months.

Registration is now open at NationalVocationSummit.org.

March 12–14, 2027 | Benedictine College | Atchison, Kansas
"Transforming a Culture of Vocations"

About the National Vocation Summit

The National Vocation Summit gathers Catholics committed to building a culture where young people can recognize, discern and respond to God's call.

###