CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1. The name of this association shall be the Ashland Stock Protective Association.

SEC. 2. The objects of the association are to secure to members thereof mutual protection in their range stock interests, and to further, as far as practicable, the stock interest of this part of Oregon.

SEC. 3. The officers of this association shall be a president, whose duty it shall be to preside at all meetings, call special meetings whenever required, and inquire into any cases of supposed crookedness; a vice-president, whose duty it shall be to act in place of the president in his absence and to assist him at all times; and a secretary, whose duty it shall be to keep a record of the proceedings of each meeting, conduct the correspondence of the association and to receive all moneys due and pay the same out on the order of the association. Each to be elected by ballot at each annual meeting and to hold office until his successor is elected and qualified.

SEC. 4. The president, vice-president and secretary shall be a standing executive committee, authorized to transact any urgent business that may suddenly arise.

ARTICLE II.

SECTION 1. Any person may become a member of this association by signing the constitution, and paying the annual membership fee of one dollar.

SEC. 2. Each member shall pay an annual membership fee of one dollar, and such additional fees as may be assessed by a majority vote at any regular meeting.

SEC. 3. The regular meetings of the association shall be held annually on the first Saturday in October, and the president shall call a meeting at any time on the application of three or more members; due notice of the time and place of each meeting to be given to each member by the secretary.

SEC. 4. Any member refusing or neglecting to pay his dues or assessments for one month after the same are due shall forfeit his membership.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1. It is the duty of each member of the association to notify his fellow members at once, in all cases, of stock wandering away from their proper range, or needing any attention or care ; and to heartily co-operate with any like association that may be formed bordering on the range.

SEC. 2. It is also the duty of each member to report to the president of the association any cases of unlawful altering of brands or marks, or any attempt of any one to take possession of stock not belonging to him.
