Welcome to the 43rd Lorenzo Driving Competition!

Once again, we offer our popular three-day format at our beautiful venue, the Lorenzo State Historic Site. Come join us for driven dressage, the Timed Country Drive, and the two-day pleasure show. The LDC board and show committee members look forward to greeting you and we acknowledge the support and camaraderie provided by the Lorenzo staff, led by Michael Roets, Historic Site Manager.

As we find ourselves roaring into the 2020's here are some details for this year's show:

- The return of the popular Picnic Class on Friday evening, July 17, in conjunction with the Hats Off to Lorenzo Welcome Party
- An open house of the Lorenzo Mansion will be offered on Friday July 17, from 5 – 7 p.m. for all competitors, grooms, officials and attendees
- Competitors not competing in the Utility Division will be permitted to use an alternative vehicle for the Sunday Pleasure Drive-Pace; the alternate vehicle must conform to traditional pleasure design specifications and would not qualify for the Utility Division (see page 21 House Rules Lorenzo Pleasure Drive Pace Class Specifications for more details)
- We have added 4 Junior Whip classes into the schedule and these classes have no entry fee. The Prize List Rules define the specific ages for Junior Whips, based on our non-enclosed rings.
- June 15, 2020 is this year's entry deadline; don't delay in sending in your entries!

We welcome back Lindsey Hager from Collins, NY as Show Secretary and Joshua Bechard from Cochranville, PA as Stable Manager. We are eager to host our invited judges: Jessica Axelsson (NJ) and Mary Anne Boyden (SC) and Technical Delegate, Lauren Reece (ME). Bruce Jones will return as our official Show Photographer and he will be on site from Friday through Sunday. The familiar and steady voices of Debra McCarthy and Sarah Compeau will be heard through the speakers as our show announcers. Join us on July 17-19 for a roaring good time!
