Welcome to the 44th Annual Lorenzo Driving Competition! We are happy to be back to our three-day format and the staff at the Lorenzo State Historic Site have been busy preparing the grounds for your arrival. Friday's line-up starts with the Timed Country Drive with Cones Course and a Reverse Psychology Obstacle course in the main ring. Drivers are also given the opportunity to drive their Town and Country obstacles, as the course will be open for 2.5 hours in the afternoon. The Friday evening Hats Off to Lorenzo welcome event will showcase three classes - one for junior whips, one for antique vehicles and the popular Picnic Class - and the Lorenzo Mansion will be open and free of charge for your viewing pleasure.

Details for the weekend include:

- The return of the Antique Vehicle division; competitors may cross enter with a second division
- The continued option for competitors not entered in the Utility Division to use an alternate vehicle for the Sunday Pleasure Drive-Pace; the alternate vehicle must conform to traditional pleasure design specifications and would not qualify for the Utility Division
- No entry fees for the Junior Whip classes
- Entry postmark deadline: June 15, 2022

We welcome our all-star lineup of officials: Jessica Axelsson (NJ) returns after our 2 year hiatus and Melissa Boyd (MI) will be officiating at Lorenzo for her first time. Dana Bright (PA) is no stranger to Lorenzo and she will fill the position of Technical Delegate. Wendy Soucy from nearby Hamilton, NY has agreed to be Cones Official for the Timed Country Drive. Competitors can expect to see the calm and competent team of Joshua Bechard (Stable Manager) and Peter Barth (Grounds Manager). Hannah Polson returns to handle the reins as Show Manager. Welcome back to Lindsey Hager as our efficient show secretary, and we introduce local equestrian professional Jennifer Hoyt as Lindsey's assistant. The familiar voices of announcers Debra McCarthy and Sarah Compeau will be heard throughout the weekend.

We appreciate your continued interest in this signature Pleasure Driving event, and we look forward to having you join us on July 15-17, 2022!
