Blossoms of Love

Discover the Elegance of Nature's Embrace

Alstroemerias from Our Kenyan Farms

Discover the vibrant beauty of our Alstroemerias sourced directly from our Kenyan farms. These exquisite blooms boast a spectrum of captivating colors, ranging from soft pastels to rich, bold hues. Grown under optimal conditions, our Alstroemerias showcase a remarkable freshness and longevity.

Characterized by their unique and delicate petals, Alstroemerias, also known as Peruvian Lilies or Lily of the Incas, add a touch of elegance to any floral arrangement. These versatile flowers are perfect for expressing a variety of sentiments, making them an ideal choice for bouquets, centerpieces, and assorted floral designs.

Our Kenyan Alstroemerias are meticulously cultivated to ensure consistent quality and size. With their long stems and multiple blooms per stem, they provide a stunning visual impact in any floral creation. Known for their durability, these Alstroemerias have a prolonged vase life, allowing recipients to enjoy their beauty for an extended period.

At DM Flowers, we take pride in offering premium Alstroemerias that not only meet but exceed the expectations of our customers. Explore the beauty and freshness of our Kenyan-grown Alstroemerias, and elevate your floral designs with these enchanting blossoms.
