

Hall of Fame Inductee

Earthquake Ike

1997 Stallion

SANS HAP MCCUE X SUESCRPTION

Earthquake Ike has played an instrumental role in the Appaloosa Cow Horse industry. He was born in 1997 and is still being shown in 2015, at the age of 18. He has won too many awards to list, but most notable he is a multiple National and World Championship titles in cutting and he earned his NCHA Certificate of Ability with trainer Mike Combs. Robert Bjorkman of Bjorkman Horse Camp owned Earthquake Ike for most of his career until recently purchased by Amanda Bishop in 2015. Earthquake Ike as a sire has passed on his talent and temperament to his offspring. He has sired World and Reserve World Champions in cutting. Most notable is Ripitike who has earned $1,177.44 in cutting. Yor Earthquake, Frosty Ike and GF Earthquake Jack are also money earning offspring. Earthquake Ike has produced three ApHC ROM Earners and offspring have earned a total of 129.5 ApHC Points.