

ApCHA Officers and Board of Directors

Ernie Bragg – ApCHA President

Ernie is a native of Maine, currently residing in NY. He has spent the majority of his life in the horse industry being a 3rd generation farrier. He has also bought, sold and trained horses in the past. He briefly lived in OK where he developed a love for the sport of cutting. Ernie's goals for the ApCHA is to see a rise in membership and entries of appaloosas in cutting. Promoting and growing the sport with good appaloosa horses. Irene Bragg – ApCHA Vice President

Born and raised in New York, Irene owns and operates RJ Performance Horses. Breeding, raising, and training quality appaloosas and quarter horses based in cutting. RJ Performance Horses stands the up and coming ApHC stallion Nine Pieces Of Eight, AQHA stallion RJ Lil Joe Acre, and AQHA stallion Dualin Duz. Email: rjperformancehorses@yahoo.com

Dannica Percevic - Secretary/Treasurer

Dannica currently owns and operates Spot On Performance Horses, located in the beautiful Black Hills of South Dakota. Dannica would like to see the membership of the ApCHA grow and attract new members. The ApCHA is a wonderful place for new exhibitors to feel welcome and compete. She is dedicated to attaining sponsorships for the shows, enabling us to allow for larger payouts and better prizes for exhibitors. Dannica has served as the ApCHA President for 7 years prior to taking over the position as secretary/treasurer. Email: dp2005@hotmail.com

Board of Directors

Jeanne Smith

Jeanne was horse crazy kid and has been involved with horses since she got her first pony at 9 and after him, an appy and that's what she has always had. Born and raised in Oregon and now resides in Central Oregon (the dry side of the state). Jeanne has shown in the reined cow horses discipline and dabbles in the cutting pen. She is involved with a local cutting club (Central Oregon Cutting Horse Association) attending and helping at their shows. Jeanne's husband is a Certified Journeyman Farrier who also shows an appy in the cutting pen. We want to help promote the breed and help get more appy owners into the cutting/cow horse disciplines.

Liz Kincaid

Liz has been involved with Appaloosa cutting since 2003 when her young stallion, Gay Bars Silver, won the ApCHA cutting futurity. "Silver" was a come-out-of-no-where entry who handily won the 10 horse class with a combined score of 426. She also rode "Silver" to a National Title and became hopelessly hooked on the sport of cutting. Since then, she has enthusiastically supported the Appaloosa cutting industry. Liz served as Secretary for the ApCHA for two years, then President for 4 years. She served as Secretary/treasurer (2013/14) and continues to serve on the Board of Directors. She is very passionate about seeing the Appaloosa Cutting Horse Association grow in members and entries. Liz owns T.O.P. Appaloosas and stands Gay Bars Silver, (2000-2017) frozen only and Five Bars Of Silver; reining and roping champion.
