

*After every storm
there is a rainbow of hope*

Community members around the world are hanging hearts and rainbows in their windows as a sign of solidarity and hope. It's also fun for walkers of every age to count rainbows while out and about. Please join us in adding a little color to our days by hanging this (or any rainbow/hearts) in your window for all to see!